January 2014 Operating Results

ASKUL Corporation released data today on results for January 2014. For details on nominal net sales, year-on-year growth in sales per customer and the number of customers, and the Internet-based share of sales, see the Supplementary Information.

Net sales

Consolidated net sales for January period this year (December 21, 2013-January 20, 2014) grew 13.3% on a year-on-year basis.
(Note that, as the numbers of business days on weekdays and on Saturdays in this January period were the same as those a year earlier, no calculation was made of the net sales growth rate adjusted for the number of business days.)

LOHACO, our Internet mail-order site for general consumers, recorded net sales of 1,151 million yen for the January period.
LOHACO's average daily net sales for the January period increased by 5.1% from the preceding month, a period that itself saw substantial sales growth thanks partly to the bonus sale.
(Note that the average daily net sales above were calculated excluding the year-end and New Year holidays of December 30 to January 3, during which sales tend to decline.)

1. For monthly operating results for this fiscal year, accounts are settled as of the 20th of each month on a provisional basis.
