Notice regarding Voluntary Adoption of IFRS

From the perspective of facilitating comparisons of financial results of Japan Exchange Group (JPX) with other exchanges located overseas and increasing investor convenience, JPX will be voluntarily adopting International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) to its disclosure material from the fiscal year ending March 2015 onward. The tentative schedule for disclosure material and IFRS adoption is as follows.

Disclosure Schedule

Fiscal Period		Disclosure Material	Accounting Standard
Year ended March 2014	Year-end	Earnings report	Japanese Standards (*)
		Consolidated financial statements	Japanese Standards
		Annual securities report
Year ending March 2015	1Q – 3Q	Quarterly earnings reports	Japanese Standards
	Year-end	Earnings report	IFRS
		Consolidated financial statements
		Annual securities report

* The full-year consolidated earnings forecasts for the fiscal year ending March 2015 will also include the impact of IFRS adoption for reference. For details on such amounts and figures, please refer to "Earnings Report for FY2013 (Japanese standards)" and "Overview of Earnings for FY2013" released today.

A separate notice will be made before IFRS adoption to explain the differences from Japanese accounting standards.
