Ichigo Megasolar Plants Begin Operation

Ichigo Group Holdings ("Ichigo") launched its ECO renewable energy business in 2012 to contribute to a sustainable society. We are pleased to announce that Ichigo's first two megasolar plants have begun operation for a combined 3.85MW in annual renewable energy production. Power generation and carbon-reduction data for these megasolar plants is available in real-time on Ichigo's website.

Going forward, Ichigo will be bringing into production its other megasolar projects that are currently under development.
