JDI Japan Display Inc.

Notice Concerning the Recognition of a Non-Operating Expense (Foreign Exchange Loss)

TOKYO, Japan, November 9, 2015 – Japan Display Inc. ("JDI") today announced that it has incurred the following non-operating expense (foreign exchange loss) for the second quarter of FY 2015.

* * *

1. Details of non-operating expense (foreign exchange loss)

Due to foreign exchange rate effects JDI has incurred a foreign exchange loss of 4,971 million yen in the second quarter of FY 2015 (July 1, 2015 to September 30, 2015) which it has recognized as a non-operating expense. The foreign exchange loss resulted from the evaluation of JDI's assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies as of the last day of the second quarter.

Since a foreign exchange loss of 1,855 million yen was already recognized in the first quarter the total foreign exchange loss for the combined first and second quarters is 6,826 million yen.

2. Impact on financial results

The impact of the foreign exchange loss on financial results is described in "Consolidated Financial Results for Six Months of Fiscal Year 2015."

About JDI

Japan Display Inc. (JDI) is the leading global manufacturer of advanced small- and medium-sized LTPS LCD panels. By leveraging its advanced technologies and the world's largest LTPS production capacity, JDI provides high resolution, low power consumption and ultrathin displays for smartphones, tablets, automotive electronics, digital cameras, medical equipment and other electronic devices. JDI, which commenced operations in April 2012, was formed through the consolidation of the display panel businesses of Sony, Hitachi and Toshiba. The company listed its stock on the First Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange in March 2014 (securities code: 6740). For more information please visit: http://www.j-display.com/english/