1. Qualitative Information Concerning Financial Results for the Fiscal Year Ended August 31, 2013

(1) Qualitative information about consolidated results of operations

During the fiscal year ended on August 31, 2013, a tendency of recovery in Japanese economy was seen in the environment surrounding especially exporting companies due to weakening yen. However, uncertainties of overseas economy such as a resurgence of financial instability in Europe, slowdown of economy of emerging countries like China, India, etc. remained as the risk pushing down the Japanese economy.

In the photovoltaic industry, to which the NPC Group, hereinafter referred to as "the Group", belongs, the Japanese market has been expanding rapidly with the background of feed-in-tariff system for renewable energy. The Group successfully concluded large and long-term contracts in the contract module assembly business. In the module manufacturing equipment business, although module manufacturers, who are the Group's main customers, increased operating rates of existing equipment, they maintained the cautious stance toward capital expenditures, which resulted in limited recovery of the Group's business.

Consequently, the Group's sales remained at a low level during the fiscal year 2013. In the meanwhile, the Group started restructuring of overseas subsidiaries including personnel reduction to substantially reduce total expenses (manufacturing cost and SG&A). However, the Group booked an operating loss, due to the steep sales decline, the booking of loss from valuation of inventories and accounts receivables, etc. in accordance with the sluggish photovoltaic market.

In addition, the Group booked an extraordinary loss of 1,306 million yen due to costs and allowances related to the subsidiaries' restructuring described above and impairment loss of some of the manufacturing equipment for contract module assembly.

As a result of the above activities, consolidated net sales were 4,530 million yen, 48.0% of the previous fiscal year. Operating loss was 1,573 million yen, compared with that of 945 million yen in the previous fiscal year. Ordinary loss was 1,169 million yen, compared with that of 1,194 million yen in the previous fiscal year. Net loss was 2,282 million yen, compared with that of 1,806 million yen in the previous fiscal year.

(2) Qualitative information about consolidated earnings forecast

In the fiscal year ending August 31, 2014, the Group assumes that the sales of module manufacturing equipment will recover in a moderate pace according to the global expansion of photovoltaic modules and the steady monthly sales booking from the contract module assembly business, whose orders were placed in the previous fiscal year. Also the Group expects to turn profitable as the cost reduction effect from subsidiaries restructuring including personnel reduction will contribute to the Group's business and cost reduction resulting from operating rate improvement has been proceeding as scheduled.

As a result of the above activities, the consolidated business forecast for the fiscal year 2014 will be as follows. Sales will increase to 17,443 million yen, 385.1% of the previous fiscal year. Operating income will be 419 million yen, compared with an operating loss of 1,573 million yen in the previous fiscal year. Ordinary income will be 286 million yen, compared with an ordinary loss of 1,169 million yen in the previous fiscal year. Reversal of foreign currency translation adjustment related to the Company's capitalizing NPC-Meier GmbH will be booked as an extraordinary loss of 350 million yen, however, extraordinary income is expected from the subsidies of 134 million yen from Ehime prefecture. As a result, net income will be 38 million yen, compared with a net loss of 2,282 million yen.

[Note] The business forecast for the first half of fiscal year 2014 is not to be disclosed. This is because the size of each order in the photovoltaic manufacturing equipment business is getting larger, and the timing of sales booking of orders are influenced by many uncertain factors. Also, the contract module assembly business is at the full launching stage. Therefore, the Group has decided not to disclose the Group's business forecast in a short span.

(3) Basic policy on profit allocation and dividends in the current and next fiscal years

The Group strives to strengthen its financial standings and increase a profit in a long term by utilizing internal reserves for R&D and capital expenditures, and at the same time ensure a stable profit return to the shareholders. It is therefore the Group's basic policy to pay out dividends in accordance with the Group's business performance and financial conditions.

The Group takes into account the financial performance during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2013 and has reluctantly determined not to distribute the year-end dividend. The dividend payment for the current fiscal year is under consideration for the time being, and the detail will be disclosed as soon as the decision is made. The Group adopts interim dividend which complies with the paragraph 5 of the article 454 of the Companies Act.

2. Going Concern Assumption

The Group's sales were 4,530 million yen, 48.0% of the sales for the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating loss was booked in three consecutive years from fiscal year 2011. The amount of cash and deposits declined to 972 million yen from 1,223 million yen at the end of the previous fiscal year. Therefore, there exist phenomena or conditions which might raise uncertainties about the Group being an assumed going concern.

The Group had continuously taken actions to reduce fixed costs including consolidation of domestic and overseas bases and personnel reduction corresponding to the market environment. In addition, the Group had started implementing the following measures to resolve these phenomena or conditions.

1) Putting contract module assembly business on track

The Group started the contract module assembly business in order to support production adjustment of its customers following the Japanese photovoltaic, hereinafter referred to as "PV", market boom. The Group had successfully signed two large and long-term contracts in February and April, 2013 and started booking sales in June and September, 2013 respectively. Through this business, the Group aims to secure steady sales by implementing about 150MW per year contract module assembly service and to mitigate the impact on cash flow by procuring the required equipment partly by the lease agreement. Utilization of the expertise and experience acquired through this new business is expected to enhance the Group's competitiveness in the module manufacturing equipment business.

2) Strengthening products through R & D and increasing added values of inventory assets

The Group has been supplying new products meeting the demands of PV manufacturers through R&D, aiming to enhance the superior competitiveness in the module manufacturing equipment business and has created replacement and remodeling demands for incorporating new technologies into the already-delivered machines. The Group also has been increasing added values matching the customers needs on inventory for sales promotion and inventory reduction.

3) Entering new sectors

Aiming to expand business domain in the PV industry, the Group started preparation for entry into PV systems, peripheral devices, and maintenance businesses for installed PV systems, anticipating the systems including utility scale systems to prevail and expand in Japanese market.

Also, for the purpose of establishing business portfolio that would not be easily affected by factors of the PV industry, the Group started sales of automation systems to other markets. The Group had delivered automation systems to automobile, building materials and home appliance industries by making the most of the technologies, knowhow, and global maintenance network obtained through PV module manufacturing equipment business.

4) Further restructuring of organizations

The Group dissolved NPC Taiwan Co., Ltd. (Taiwan) and NPC Korea Co., Ltd. (Korea) in charge of sales support and maintenance service in Asia as of August 31, 2013. The Group also dissolved NPC-Meier GmbH (Germany) in charge of designing, manufacturing, sales and maintenance service of the PV module manufacturing equipment mainly for European customers as of September 30, 2013. Through the restructuring, the Group reduced fixed costs to improve the Group's profitability by utilizing management resources effectively and efficiently and reinforcing the management base.

5) Strengthening financial structure

The Group had been striving to improve cash collection by widening application of inventories for manufacturing equipment. The Group had also been striving to collect advances aiming to securely collect cash and had improved management system of cash collecting schedule. Furthermore, the Group had established the timely and accurate monitoring system of balance sheet and cash flow.

The Group will continuously implement these action measures and maintain the stable business relationship with financial institutes, with the credit facility agreement already extended. Therefore the Group concluded there is no material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern.
