DyDo Group Holdings to invest in Global Healthcare Fund I (tentative name)

DyDo Group Holdings has signed an agreement to invest 2 billion yen in Global Healthcare Fund I Investment Limited Partnership (tentative name), an entity being formed by Asajes Ventures LLP (head office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; representative: Chika Yoshinaga).

1. Investment reasoning

The fund is dedicated to taking the lead in introducing, developing, and licensing exceptional pharmaceuticals and other products from Europe and the U.S. to countries in Asia, including Japan.

DyDo Group Holdings believes that by investing in the fund it will be able to gain specialized expertise and advice, allowing it to work more effectively to create new businesses in the healthcare domain.

2. Fund overview
