※Dividends per share for the first half of the current fiscal year are 40yen, including 30yen resolved to be paid today for the second quarter dividends, besides 10yen for the first quarter dividends.

2. Reason for the upward adjustment

The dividend policy of the Company is to link dividend payments to business performance and earnings on an ongoing basis. Its basic policy for returning profits to shareholders is to maintain a payout ratio of around 35% based on consolidated net income. The consolidated results for the first half of the current fiscal year announced today showed an increase in the first half results compared to most recent forecast figures, and consequently, the dividend for the second quarter was revised upward.
