SoftBank Corp.

Transfer of Shares of Domestic Subsidiaries and Affiliates to SoftBank Corp.

SoftBank Group Corp. ("SBG") and SoftBank Corp. ("SB") announce that all of the shares of 12 domestic subsidiaries and affiliates, held by SoftBank Group International GK ("SBGI"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of SBG, will be transferred to SB through an in-kind contribution (the "Transfer") as follows.

1. Outline of the Transfer

SBG has been conducting a reorganization of SoftBank Group (the "Group") companies both in Japan and overseas in an effort to further clarify its position as a strategic holding company. As a part of this effort, SBG will pool its domestic businesses into SB, a company that plays a central role in the Group, to achieve further growth and agility.

SB aims to further strengthen its management foundation as an operating company by deploying its business in a wide range of sectors while pursuing synergies with each of those companies subject to the Transfer.

All of the shares subject to the Transfer will be subsequently transferred to SB from SBGI through an in-kind contribution going forward.
