(Amendment) Notice regarding Amendment to Public Notice for Commencement of Tender Offer Following Filing of Amendment to Tender Offer Registration Statement

PCGVI-1 Inc. (the "Offeror") hereby announces that it commenced a tender offer (the "Tender Offer") for common stock of DD Group Co., Ltd. (the "Target Company") listed on the Prime Market of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. as of July 15, 2025 under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (Act No. 25 of 1948, as amended, the "Act").

Following the Offeror's receipt, on July 29, 2025, of the "Notice of No Cease and Desist Order" and the "Notice of Shortening of Prohibition Period," both dated July 28, 2025, from the Fair Trade Commission, certain matters described in the Tender Offer Registration Statement, filed with the Director General of the Kanto Local Finance Bureau on July 15, 2025, and the Public Notice for Commencement of Tender Offer dated July 15, 2025 attached thereto (the "Public Notice for Commencement of Tender Offer") have become subject to amendment. Accordingly, the Amendment to Tender Offer Registration Statement has been filed with the Director General of the Kanto Local Finance Bureau on August 1, 2025, pursuant to Article 27-8, Paragraph 2 of the Act.

Please be advised that the contents of the Public Notice for Commencement of Tender Offer are hereby amended as follows. Please note that this amendment does not constitute a change in the terms of purchase, etc. of the Tender Offer as defined in Article 27-3, Paragraph 2, Item 1 of the Act.

The sections that have been amended are shown with underlining.

Details of Amendment to Public Notice for Commencement of Tender Offer

2. Details of Tender Offer

(11) Other conditions and methods of purchase

(ii) The presence or absence of the conditions for withdrawal of Tender Offer, details thereof and method of disclosure for withdrawal

(Before Amendment)

Upon the occurrence of any matter listed in Article 14, Paragraph 1, Item 1 i through nu and wa through tsu, Item 3 i through chi and nu, Item 4, as well as in Article 14, Paragraph 2, Items 3 through 6 of the Enforcement Order, the Offeror may withdraw the Tender Offer. The "event similar to respective events specified in i through ri" set forth in Article 14, Paragraph 1, Item 3 nu of the Enforcement Order is (i) an event in which any statutory disclosure documents that the Target Company has previously filed are found to contain false information in respect of any material matters or to lack information required to be provided in relation to material matters, and the Offeror did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, the existence of the false statements, and (ii) an event in which any of Article 14, Paragraph 1, Items 3 i through to occurs with respect to any of the Target Company's material subsidiaries.

Regarding the Prior Notification to the Fair Trade Commission made pursuant to the provisions of Article 10, Paragraph 2 of the Act on Prohibition of Private Monopolization and Maintenance of Fair Trade (Act No. 54 of 1947, as amended) (the "Anti-monopoly Act"), the Offeror may withdraw the Tender Offer if any of the following applies by the day preceding the expiration date of the Tender Offer Period (including the extended period thereto), on the grounds that the circumstances specified in Article 14, Paragraph 1, Item 4 of the Enforcement Order have arisen: (i) if the Action Period has not expired; (ii) if the Prior Notice on Cease and Desist Order has been issued under Article 10, Paragraph 2 of the Anti-monopoly Act; or (iii) if a petition for an emergency stop order has been filed with the court as a person engaging in an act suspected of violating the provisions of Article 10, Paragraph 1 of the Anti-monopoly Act.

In the event that the Offeror intends to withdraw the Tender Offer, the Offeror shall give public notice electronically, and shall then post a notice in the Nihon Keizai Shimbun that such public notice has been made; provided, however, that, if it is difficult to give such notice by the last day of the Tender Offer Period, the Offeror shall make a public announcement pursuant to Article 20 of the TOB Order and give public notice forthwith.

(After Amendment)

Upon the occurrence of any matter listed in Article 14, Paragraph 1, Item 1 i through nu and wa through tsu, Item 3 i through chi and nu, as well as in Article 14, Paragraph 2, Items 3 through 6 of the Enforcement Order, the Offeror may withdraw the Tender Offer. The "event similar to respective events specified in i through ri" set forth in Article 14, Paragraph 1, Item 3 nu of the Enforcement Order is (i) an event in which any statutory disclosure documents that the Target Company has previously filed are found to contain false information in respect of any material matters or to lack information required to be provided in relation to material matters, and the Offeror did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, the existence of the false statements, and (ii) an event in which any of Article 14, Paragraph 1, Items 3 i through to occurs with respect to any of the Target Company's material subsidiaries.

In the event that the Offeror intends to withdraw the Tender Offer, the Offeror shall give public notice electronically, and shall then post a notice in the Nihon Keizai Shimbun that such public notice has been made; provided, however, that, if it is difficult to give such notice by the last day of the Tender Offer Period, the Offeror shall make a public announcement pursuant to Article 20 of the TOB Order and give public notice forthwith.

[Soliciting Regulations]
This press release is a press statement to announce the Tender Offer to the public and is not prepared for the purpose of soliciting an offer to sell. When making an offer for sale, please be sure to read the Tender Offer Explanation Statement regarding the Tender Offer and make the offer at your own discretion. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell, a solicitation of an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any securities, nor does it constitute a part thereof, and this press release (or any part hereof) or the fact of its distribution shall not serve as the basis for any contract related to the Tender Offer, and may not be relied upon when executing any contract.
[Future Outlook]
This press release may include forward-looking statements such as "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "believe," and "assume," including those related to the future business of the Offeror and other companies. These statements are based on the current business outlook of the Offeror and may change depending on the circumstances going forward. The Offeror does not assume any obligation to revise forward-looking statements regarding this information to reflect actual results, various circumstances, or changes in conditions.
[U.S. Regulations]
The Tender Offer shall be implemented in accordance with the procedures and information disclosure standards prescribed by the Act. However, these procedures and standards are not always the same as the procedures and information disclosure standards applicable in the United States. In particular, neither Section 13(e) nor Section 14(d) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as amended; the same applies hereinafter), nor the rules promulgated under these provisions, apply to the Tender Offer, and the Tender Offer is not conducted in accordance with these procedures and standards. The financial information included in this press release, the documents referenced in this press release, and the public disclosures of the Target Company has been prepared in accordance with Japanese accounting standards and is not necessarily equivalent in content to the financial statements of U.S. companies. In addition, because both the Offeror and the Target Company are corporations incorporated outside the United States, and because some or all of their respective officers reside outside the United States, it may be difficult to exercise rights or claims that may be asserted on the basis of U.S. securities laws. It may also be impossible to initiate legal proceedings in courts outside the United States against corporations incorporated outside the United States or their officers on the grounds of a violation of U.S. securities laws. Furthermore, the jurisdiction of U.S. courts may not necessarily be recognized over corporations incorporated outside the United States, as well as their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. In addition, there is no guarantee that shareholders will be able to compel corporations incorporated outside the United States, as well as their respective subsidiaries and affiliates, to submit to the jurisdiction of U.S. courts.
Unless otherwise specifically stated, all procedures in connection with the Tender Offer shall be conducted in the Japanese language. While all or part of the documents in connection with the Tender Offer may be prepared in English, in the event of any discrepancies between the English-language documents and the Japanese-language documents, the Japanese-language documents shall prevail.
This press release or the documents referenced in this press release include forward-looking statements as defined in Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The actual results may be significantly different from those expressly or implicitly indicated in such forward-looking statements, due to known or unknown risks, uncertainties, or other factors. The Offeror, the Target Company, or their respective affiliates do not guarantee that the results expressly or implicitly indicated in those forward-looking statements will be achieved. The "forward-looking statements" included in this press release or the documents referenced in this press release were prepared based on the information held by the Offeror and the Target Company as of the date hereof, and unless obligated by laws or regulations, the Offeror, the Target Company or their respective affiliates shall not be obligated to update or modify the statements to reflect future events or situations.
The financial advisors of the Offeror and the Target Company, as well as the tender offer agent (including their respective affiliates), may, within the ordinary course of their business and to the extent permitted under Japanese laws and regulations related to financial instruments transactions as well as other applicable laws and regulations, in accordance with the requirements of Rule 14e-5(b) under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, purchase, or conduct any act in preparation for such purchase of, the Target Company’s Stock for their own account or for their customers’ accounts, not through the Tender Offer, prior to the commencement of the Tender Offer or during the period for purchases in the Tender Offer. Such purchases may be conducted at the market price through market transactions, or at the price determined through negotiations conducted outside the market. If any information concerning such purchases is disclosed in Japan, such information will also be disclosed in English in the United States via the English website (or by other public disclosure methods) of the person who has conducted such purchases.
[Other Countries]
Legal restrictions may be imposed on the announcement, publication, or distribution of this press release in certain countries or regions. In such cases, please be aware of and comply with such restrictions. This press release shall not constitute a solicitation of an offer to purchase or an offer to sell shares related to the Tender Offer, and shall be deemed to have been distributed for informative purposes only.
