Notification Regarding the Impact of the Delay/Suspension of Handling of International Parcels due to COVID-19

Tokyo, Japan – 1 April 2020 – BEENOS Inc. (BEENOS) would like to extend its sincere condolences to the family and loved ones of those who have passed from the COVID-19 virus, and well wishes to those who are currently battling the virus.

BEENOS hereby announces its response to a press release, "The Delay/Suspension of Handling International Parcels to Certain Countries/Regions" (Japanese only), published by JAPAN POST Co.,Ltd. (JAPAN POST) today. BEENOS's Proxy Purchasing Service, Buyee, and Package Forwarding Business, tenso.com, are both in the Cross Border Business of the E-Commerce Business segment. Both services assist in the shipping of items purchased on Japanese EC sites internationally, using international shipping methods including JAPAN POST.

Currently, the bulk of Buyee and tenso.com's transactions are to Hong Kong, Taiwan and the United States which are currently not included in JAPAN POST's list of restricted countries. Furthermore, Buyee and tenso.com have other shipping options to most of the countries and regions where JAPAN POST is delay/suspending their services. Therefore, BEENOS forecasts that the impact of this release to these services will be minor.

Please refer to the Buyee and tenso.com's service websites for the most recent updates information regarding shipping to individual countries and regions.

BEENOS has taken the COVID-19 situation very seriously since the outbreak was first reported and recognized the long-lasting impact it could have on the global economy. BEENOS implemented a remote working policy in February as a measure to prevent the spread of COVID-19 to employees, partners, customers and guests. BEENOS continues to monitor the situation carefully and will provide any other notable updates as soon as the information becomes available.
