2. Reason

The Company's basic policy on shareholder returns is to maintain stable dividends and flexibly execute treasury stock acquisition, while ensuring sufficient retained earnings to enhance future business expansion and strengthen our financial position. Based on these principles, and in accordance with the capital policy outlined in our Medium-Term Business Plan "Wacom Chapter 4," we will aim to achieve a total shareholder return ratio of at least 50% on a consolidated basis through progressive dividends and flexible share buybacks, while ensuring financial soundness.

With respect to the dividend policy for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026, we will implement progressive dividends in principle. With regard to frequency of dividend payments, we will pay a dividend from surplus twice a year, comprising an interim dividend and a year-end dividend, for the purpose of enhancing medium- to long-term stock value and creating more opportunities to return profits to shareholders.

Based on the above policy, as for year-end dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026, the Board of Directors resolved to pay a dividend of 15.00 yen per share as the dividend forecast announced on January 30, 2026, in consideration of the business results for the current fiscal year and future business development.
