Notice Regarding Revision of the Dividend Forecast

Daido Metal Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, "the Company"), announces that it has revised its year-end dividend forecast for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026, which was announced on February 12, 2026, as follows.

1.Revision of the Dividend Forecast

	Annual dividends
	Interim	Year-end	Total amount of dividends
Previous forecast	－	16.00 yen	28.00 yen
Revised forecast	－	19.00 yen	31.00 yen
Actual dividend of the current fiscal year	12.00 yen	－	－
Previous period （Fiscal year ended March 31, 2025）	7.00 yen	11.00 yen	18.00 yen

2. Reasons for the Revision

It is the Company's policy to pay appropriate dividends to our shareholders based on the results of operations and payout ratio and to maintain a stable and sustainable level of dividend in overall consideration of the internal reserve for future business development, expansion of research and development, strengthening of business foundations and response to changes in the business environment.

The forecast for the per-share year-end dividend for the fiscal period ended March 31, 2026 has been revised to 19.00 yen, an increase of 3.00 yen from the previous fiscal year (annual dividend of 31.00 yen per share), after comprehensively taking into account the above basic policy and, among other factors, the fact that the Company's consolidated financial results for the full-year under review surpassed our forecasts, with the Company recording an increase in both sales and profit.
