gumi Inc. ("the Company") hereby announces that it has resolved, at the Board of Directors meeting held today, to forego payment of a dividend of surplus, with April 30, 2025 as the reference date, as detailed below.

(2) Reason

Our basic capital policy is to reinforce shareholders' equity to stabilize and strengthen our financial base, and to proactively allocate funds to growth investments, while also delivering stable and continuous returns to shareholders in light of business performance, payout ratios, etc.

For the fiscal year ended April 2025, although consolidated results returned to profitability, we have determined that we must select and concentrate management resources to drive future business growth and further enhance corporate value. Accordingly—and much to our regret—we have decided not to declare a dividend for the year.

We sincerely apologize to our shareholders and will strive to resume dividend payments at the earliest possible opportunity. We ask for your continued understanding and support.
