ExaWizards Accelerates Sales of AI Services and Products Through Sales Agency Agreement with NTT Communications

— Expanding Adoption of Multiple Services such as exaBase Generative AI, exaBase Studio, and exaBase Meeting Summary by Leveraging NTT Com's Customer Base of 650,000 Companies —

ExaWizards Inc. (Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director, President & CEO: Makoto Haruta; hereinafter "ExaWizards") has entered into a sales agency agreement with NTT Communications Corporation (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director, President: Katsushige Kojima; hereinafter "NTT Com"). NTT Com will leverage its sales capabilities and network to sell a wide range of AI services and products from Exawizards and its group company, Exa Enterprise AI.

In addition, the AI agent development and operation platform "exaBase Studio" and the "exaBase Meeting Summarization" service, which uses AI to record, summarize, and analyze sales activities, are scheduled for launch in June 2025.

☑Background of the Agreement

The Exawizards Group's strength lies in developing and providing secure generative AI solutions to Japanese companies. As of the end of March 2025, the company has contributed to business efficiency and productivity improvements at 1,800 companies.

NTT Com became the core company of the Docomo Group's corporate business in 2022, creating new value and solving social and industrial issues through the use of generative AI. Their sales capabilities and employee networks have allowed them to accumulate a customer base of 650,000 companies through their nationwide branches.

Both companies will leverage each other's strengths to improve the productivity of office workers at Japanese companies by having NTT Com sell Exawizards and Exa Enterprise AI's services and products to their customers throughout Japan.
