Notice Regarding Further Enhancement of the Shareholder Benefit Program for the Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 2026

SBI Global Asset Management Co., Ltd. (the "Company") hereby announce that at the Board of Directors meeting held today, the Company has resolved to implement a shareholder benefit program for shareholders recorded in the shareholder register as of March 31, 2026.

The Company has implemented a shareholder benefit program as a token of appreciation for the continued support of its shareholders, with the aim of deepening their understanding of the Group's businesses and encouraging medium- to long-term shareholding.

In connection with the scheduled merger with SBI RHEOS HIFUMI Inc. effective December 1, 2025, the Company has decided to newly grant as a shareholder benefit investment trust units of Hifumi Crossover Pro, which had been provided under the shareholder benefit program of SBI RHEOS HIFUMI.

Furthermore, to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Company's listing on the Tokyo Stock Exchange (listing date: June 23, 2000), the Company has decided to provide an additional commemorative benefit in addition to the existing program.

Going forward, the Company will continue to review and enhance the shareholder benefit program as appropriate, with the aim of ensuring the continued and long-term support of an even broader base of shareholders.

(1) Shareholder Benefit Program Based on the Record Date of March 31, 2026

The shareholder benefit program to be implemented based on the record date of March 31, 2026, is as follows.

Shareholders who meet the respective eligibility conditions will be entitled to receive all applicable benefits (i.e., the benefits are not offered on a selection basis).

A. Crypto Asset (XRP)

(To be implemented under the same conditions and benefit levels as before)

Number of shares held	Continuous holding period	Benefit details
100–499 shares	–	JPY 2,500 equivalent in XRP
500 shares or more	less than 1 year	JPY 10,000 equivalent in XRP
	more than 1 year	JPY 12,000 equivalent in XRP

Notes:

・The number of XRP tokens granted will be determined based on the XRP price as of 5:00 p.m. on March 31, 2026.

・ "Shareholders holding 5 or more units continuously for over one year" refers to those who have been continuously recorded or registered under the same shareholder number as holding 5 or more units in all shareholder registers of the Company during fiscal 2025 (currently confirmed to include those as of the end of September 2025, October 15, 2025, and March 31, 2026).Shareholders whose shareholder number changes due to inheritance, removal from the shareholder register, or similar reasons will not be considered to have held shares continuously.

・The benefit will be granted through a crypto asset account in the shareholder's own name opened with SBI VC Trade Co., Ltd.Shareholders who are unable to open an account with the company will not be eligible to receive this benefit.(Please note that minors are not eligible to open an account and therefore cannot receive this benefit.)

・Receipt of the benefit through an account not in the shareholder's own name will not be permitted.

B. Investment Trust (Hifumi Crossover Pro)

Number of shares held	Benefit details
5 units (500 shares) or more	JPY 2,500 equivalent in investment trust units

Notes:

・"Hifumi Crossover Pro" is a publicly offered investment trust that invests across both listed and unlisted companies. It is established and managed by Rheos Capital Works Inc., a subsidiary of SBI RHEOS HIFUMI Inc. For further details, please refer to the company's website. (URL: https://hifumi.rheos.jp/lp/crossoverpro/)

・In order to receive this benefit, shareholders are required to open a direct investment account with Rheos Capital Works Inc. (Please note that the benefit cannot be received through accounts held with other securities companies or financial institutions.)

・If the name registered in the shareholder registry of the Company as of the end of March 2026 differs from the name registered for the direct investment account with Rheos Capital Works Inc., the "Hifumi Crossover Pro" benefit will not be granted. Shareholders are requested to ensure that their registration details with financial institutions are up to date.

C. Commemorative Benefit (Crypto Asset: XRP)

Number of shares held	Benefit details
1,000 shares or more	JPY 3,000 equivalent in XRP

Notes:

This benefit will be provided in addition to the XRP benefit listed under item A above.For example, a shareholder who has continuously held 5 units or more for over one year and holds 10 units or more as of March 31, 2026, will receive a total of JPY 15,000 equivalent in XRP from the combined A and C benefits.

D. Products Sold by SBI ALA Promo Co., Ltd.

Number of shares held	Benefit details
1,000 shares or more	One unit of ALA Plus GOLD EX (retail price JPY 11,800)

(2) Other Information

Shareholders who, as a result of the merger with SBI RHEOS HIFUMI Inc. scheduled to take effect on December 1, 2025, hold shares of the Company that were allotted in exchange for shares of SBI RHEOS HIFUMI Inc., will also be eligible for the above benefits.(However, the shareholding period will not be carried over.)

In the future, should regulatory reforms enable the establishment of exchange-traded funds (ETFs) or investment trusts that include crypto assets, the Company will consider offering such crypto asset ETFs or investment trusts, to be structured within the SBI Group, as new shareholder benefits.

Through these initiatives, the Company aims to deliver greater value to its shareholders and provide more attractive investment opportunities via the shareholder benefit program.

Further details of the shareholder benefit program will be announced as soon as they are finalized. End
