Held the first new graduate induction ceremony in 15 years of business

Welcoming new colleagues and looking forward to revitalizing the organization

FP Partner Inc. (Headquarters: Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director and President: Tsutomu Kuroki; listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange Prime Market), held an induction ceremony for the first new graduates to join the company on Wednesday, April 1st. Four new graduates joined the company and took a new step forward to build the future together.

The first new graduate recruitment conducted to develop human resources to support the company together

4 new graduates and our company's executives

Since our founding in 2009, we have specialized in mid-career recruitment to make our staff ready for work immediately. As a result, in the 15 years since our founding, we have grown to a scale of 174 offices nationwide and 2,781 employees (as of November 2024). In order for our company to continue to grow and expand our services in the future, we believe that it is necessary to develop human resources who will support the company over the long term, and so we launched a new graduate recruitment project in December 2022, and we are pleased to announce that we have now hired four new graduates. We hope that the new graduate recruitment will lead to the birth of new perspectives and ideas, and to the revitalization of our organization.

At the same time as the project started, we also introduced an internship system to prevent any gaps from occurring after joining the company. The aim is to give them a feel for the atmosphere of the company and how work is done through participation in actual meetings and group work, so that they can have a better idea of how they will be able to contribute after joining the company.

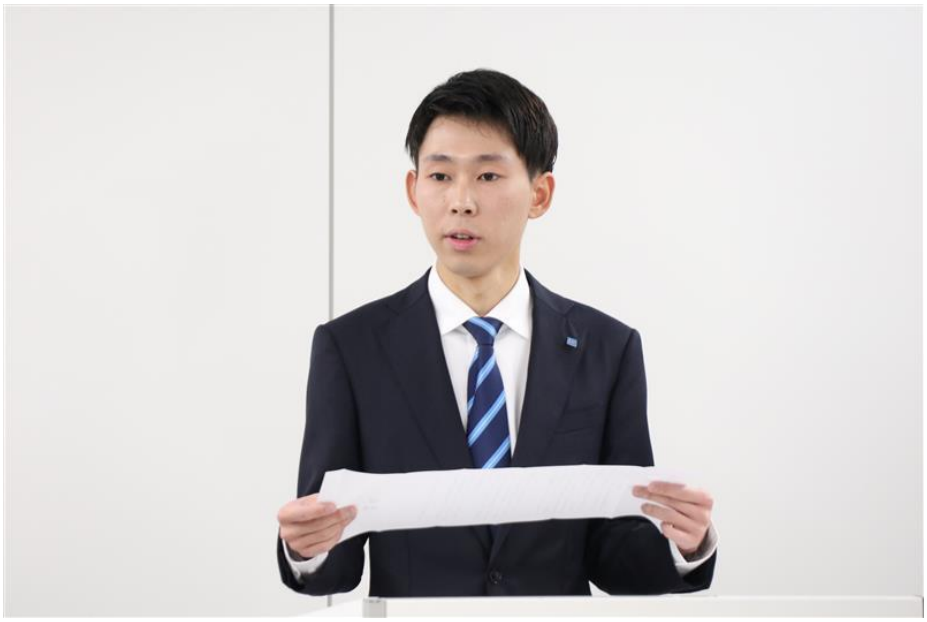
The company entrance ceremony

The induction ceremony was held at our head office, and our CEO, Kuroki, gave a welcome speech to the new employees. He talked about the role of financial institutions and the importance of financial planning, while also sharing his own experiences. He ended with a strong message: “Our company has grown over the past 15 years by recruiting more and more people. We aim to continue growing as a company that can continue to recruit new graduates, and we will also continue to create an environment where employees can work with a sense of purpose. Let's grow together.”

Mr. Shoji, who represented the new employees, said, “From today, we are taking our first steps as working adults. We are aware of the great responsibility we have and the fact that we will be expected to contribute as members of the company, but we are also delighted to have been given the opportunity to grow. We aim to grow our company's services so that they are known by everyone in Japan.”



In order to continue to achieve long-term growth, we will continue to promote the hiring of new graduates with the aim of developing the next generation. We will also work to create a company where employees are motivated and find their work fulfilling by improving training systems and other measures to create an environment that encourages growth.
