2. Reason

The Company positions returning profit to shareholders as one of its key management priorities. As for our basic policy on dividends, while our intention is to respond flexibly in accordance with operating results and market trends by comprehensively evaluating both shareholder returns and the enrichment of internal reserves, our policy for the time being is to determine dividend amounts based on a dividend payout ratio of 30% or more.

Under this policy, regarding the dividend of surplus (year-end dividend) for the fiscal year under review (fiscal year ended September 2026), taking into comprehensive consideration factors such as profit attributable to owners of parent reaching 1,448 million yen (an increase of 30.3% compared to the previous fiscal year), the Company has decided to increase the dividend by 0.50 yen from the most recent dividend forecast (9.00 yen per share) to 9.50 yen per share. As a result, the annual dividend for the fiscal year under review will represent an increase of 2.00 yen compared to the previous fiscal year's actual dividend (7.50 yen per share), resulting in a consolidated dividend payout ratio of 31.1%.

* The dividend forecast is as follows.

	Dividend per share (yen)
	End of second quarter	Year-end	Total
Dividend forecast		9.50 yen	9.50 yen
Current FY actual	0.00 yen
Previous FY actual (FY Sep. 2025)	0.00 yen	7.50 yen	7.50 yen
