Notice Concerning Change of Market Segment to Tokyo Stock Exchange Prime Market

Northsand, Inc. (the "Company") hereby announces that the market segment on which the Company's shares are listed has been changed today from the Growth Market to the Prime Market of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

This achievement is entirely owing to the support of our clients, business partners, shareholders and investors, our employees and their families, and everyone else who supports the Company, and we would like to express our heartfelt gratitude.

Since its founding, the Company has focused not only on the skills of consulting but also on who the consultant is as a person. We think about what our clients truly need and act quickly, rolling up our sleeves to get things done. We believe that building on these basic efforts, day after day, has brought us to where we are today.

The change to the Prime Market is not a goal, but a new starting point. Guided by our mission, "Bring 'cool' to companies," we will continue to do our utmost to be of service to all of our stakeholders. We kindly ask for your continued support going forward.
