K Pharma Launches English IR Website and Official Social Media Accounts on X and note

K Pharma, Inc. (the "Company") today announced the launch of its English-language investor relations (IR) website. In November 2026, the Company also launched official accounts on X (formerly Twitter) and note, with the aim of helping shareholders, investors and other stakeholders gain a deeper understanding of its business and financial results.

The new English IR website gives overseas investors direct access to information on the Company's business and its disclosure materials in English. Through its official social media accounts, the Company will share its disclosures and corporate initiatives in a more accessible way. K Pharma remains committed to strengthening its engagement with investors in Japan and around the world.
