The overview of each business segment is as follows:

[Distributor Business (DTB：commercial foods wholesaling)]
Sales to the domestic foodservice industry remained steady, supported by inbound demand, resulting in 104.8% year-over-year.
In addition, the year-over-year sales increase attributable to the newly consolidated company (Sankyo Shokucho Co., Ltd., consolidated in September of the previous fiscal year) has run its course.

[Cash and Carry Business (C&C：commercial foods cash wholesaling)]
Despite the impact of lower rice market prices compared to the previous year, year-over-year sales were 102.4%, or 101.1% on a same-store basis.
