Tactics and Financial and Capital Policies in Medium-Term Management Plan II

The Fukui Bank, Ltd. (President: Eiichi Hasegawa; hereinafter "the Bank") hereby announces that it has formulated the comprehensive version of the Medium-Term Management Plan II (hereinafter "the Plan"), which was announced on March 27, 2026, incorporating specific tactics and financial and capital policies, based on the full-year financial results of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026.

On March 27, 2026, the Bank announced an overview of the Plan, including the "philosophy framework and corporate slogan," "three growth strategies," "five growth drivers," and "target performance indicators." We have positioned the period of the Plan as the three years to unlock the region's potential by harnessing the capabilities of talent to deliver "moving experiences" as we evolve as a "problem-solver for the region."

This announcement presents a comprehensive version of the Plan, incorporating specific tactics and financial and capital policies designed to enhance its effectiveness.

In addition, we have revised the "Sustainability Policy" in conjunction with the formulation of the Plan. For further details, please visit the Bank's website (Japanese only).
