ibis inc. Named to Forbes Asia's 2026 Best Under A Billion List

ibis inc. is pleased to announce that it has been named to Forbes Asia's 2026 Best Under A Billion list.

Now in its 25th edition, the unranked Best Under A Billion list recognizes 200 top-performing publicly listed companies in the Asia-Pacific region with annual sales of more than US$10 million and less than US$1 billion. The companies were selected from more than 19,000 publicly traded companies in the region based on a composite score incorporating financial metrics such as debt, sales and earnings per share (EPS) growth, and return on equity (ROE), as well as qualitative screens.

We are scheduled to receive an award at the Forbes Asia Best Under A Billion Forum and Awards Dinner, to be held in Hong Kong on November 23, 2026. We will continue to pursue sustainable growth and enhance our corporate value. Details are as follows.
