Announcement Concerning Differences between GMO Payment Gateway, Inc.'s Non-Consolidated Financial Results for the Fiscal Year 2026 and the Previous Results

Today, GMO Payment Gateway, Inc. (TSE Prime Market: 3769), our consolidated subsidiary, announced the differences between its non-consolidated financial results for the fiscal year 2026 and the previous results.

1. Differences between the actual financial results for the fiscal year 2026 (October 1, 2025, through to September 30, 2026) and the previous results

(Millions of yen, except per share figures)	Net sales	Operating profit	Ordinary profit	Net Profit	Net profit per share
Actual for fiscal year 2025 (A)	44,566	21,817	29,405	22,117	291.59
Actual for fiscal year 2026 (B)	49,037	24,615	32,329	24,911	328.06
Change (B–A)	4,471	2,798	2,924	2,794
% change	10.0%	12.8%	9.9%	12.6%

2. Reasons for the Differences

Net sales, operating profit, ordinary profit and net profit have all increased compared to the previous fiscal year, due to an increase in net sales of the payment processing business driven by growth in payment processing volume, as well as growth in various services in the financial-related business, including remittance services.
