Feb/25/2026
INTLOOP Inc.

An Interview with INTLOOP President Hayashi Featured in Newsweek International

An interview with Hirofumi Hayashi, President and CEO of INTLOOP Inc., was published in the January 23, 2026 issue of Newsweek International, a weekly magazine issued by Newsweek Digital LLC. A feature article based on the interview was also included in the publication.
In addition, the interview was published on February 19, 2026 by The Worldfolio, an international business media outlet based in Singapore.

Founded in 1933 in the United States, Newsweek is a globally recognized news media brand distributed across multiple countries and platforms. Through the interview conducted by The Worldfolio PTE LTD, an official partner of Newsweek, Mr. Hayashi discusses the transformation of Japan’s economy amid the rapid adoption of advanced technologies such as AI, as well as INTLOOP’s vision for achieving sustainable growth in this evolving environment.

We invite you to read the full articles below.

■Featured Article

Japan Inc. at a Turning Point: The New Playbook for Talent, Tech and Capital Discipline

https://www.newsweek.com/newsweek-country-reports

Please refer to the linked article below on the above URL.

japan-inc-turning-point-new-playbook-talent-tech-capital-discipline.pdf

How INTLOOP Is Driving Digital Transformation and Global Growth as Japan Faces a Shrinking Workforce

https://www.theworldfolio.com/interviews/how-intloop-is-driving-digital-transformation-and-global-growth-as-japan-faces-shrinking-workforce/7322/

■Newsweek

https://www.newsweek.com/

■The Worldfolio

https://www.theworldfolio.com/