2. Reason for Resumption of Dividend

One of our management challenges is profit distribution to shareholders. It is our basic policy to attempt stable and continuous profit distribution taking the business environment surrounding us, shareholders’ equity, and our own business performance into consideration.

Regarding dividend for fiscal year ended March 2018, ACOM takes recent business performance and financial basis into consideration. As a result, ACOM has decided to pay a dividend of 1 yen per share (latest forecast of dividend was “undecided”)

Resumption of dividend assumes approval at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 2018.
