2. Matters Concerning the Functions of Execution of Duties, Audit and Monitoring, Appointment and Determination of Compensation, etc. (Outline of Status of System for Corporate Governance) (Updated)

(1) Outline of current framework of management structure

(A) Board of Directors

In order to speed up decision-making and ensure effective mutual monitoring among directors, the Company has a Board of Directors with ten members, three of whom are Outside Directors.

The Company has concluded a limited liability agreement with each of the five non-executive Directors (three of whom are Outside Directors), which limits the liability for damage under Article 423, Paragraph 1, of the Companies Act to the extent of the amount stipulated in the law, in accordance with the provision of Article 427, Paragraph 1, of the Act.

The Board decides important business management matters, such as management strategies and planning, and also determines basic policies for building corporate governance and internal control systems. The Board delegates decision-making on matters related to the execution of business operations other than matters to be resolved at the Board of Directors, to president and director. The Board monitors and supervises the execution of matters delegated to president and director.

It meets once every quarter in principle, and more as deemed necessary.

(B) Audit & Supervisory Committee

The Audit & Supervisory Committee consists of four members, three of whom are Outside Directors.

The Committee holds meetings regularly to receive reports concerning important matters relevant to audit and supervision, hold discussions, and pass resolutions.

(C) Executive Officers

The company introduced an executive officer system in June 2003. The Board of Directors appoints executive officers, determines their function, lines of responsibility and authority, and delegates execution of operations to them. In these ways, decision-making and business execution are expedited, while supervision and execution functions are clearly separated. The Company has 19 executive officers, nine of whom are directors in office, and four of the ten members of the Board of Directors serve concurrently as executive officers.

(D) Executive Officers' Meeting

The Executive Officers' Meeting consists of Representative Directors and executive officers who serve concurrently as directors. In the presence of Selected Members of Audit & Supervisory Committee (hereinafter "Selected Committee Members"), the Executive Officers' Meeting discusses and makes decisions related to the execution of important business operations delegated by the Board of Directors to the President and Director, and deliberates management policies and management plans in advance for resolution at the Board of Directors Meeting in accordance with basic policies determined by the Board of Directors.

The Executive Officers' Meeting assembles three times a month, in principle, and more as deemed necessary.

(E) Committees

(a) Compliance Committee

The Compliance Committee, appointed by the Board of Directors, consists of external committees from experts from outside the Company and internal committees from the Company's Directors. In the presence of Selected Committee Members, it discusses and makes recommendations about the following compliance-related matters.

- Items relating to formulation, revision or abolishment of the ACOM Group Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct;
- Important items related to establishment and operation of compliance systems;
- Items relating to formulation of basic plans;
- Items relating to the correction of major violations, actions for improvement and recurrence prevention measures; and
- Important items related to other compliance issues.

The Compliance Committee meets six times a year, in principle, and more as deemed necessary.

(b) Risk Management Committee

The Risk Management Committee consists of Representative Directors and executive officers who serve concurrently as directors, etc. In the presence of Selected Committee Members, the Committee discusses and makes decisions on the matters related to risk evaluation, the matters related to risk management priority measures and other important items related to risk management. It also deliberates in advance the status of sustenance in general of the Company's risk management approach for resolution at the Board of Directors Meeting.

The Risk Management Committee meets at least once every quarter, in principle, and more as deemed necessary.

(c) Financial Information Disclosure Committee

The Financial Information Disclosure Committee consists of executive officers who concurrently serve as directors in office that are in charge of the relevant departments. In the presence of Selected Committee Members, the Committee deliberates in advance the items related to the improvement of the financial disclosure system and the financial information to be disclosed for resolution at the Board of Directors Meeting, in order for the disclosure of the financial information to be made in accordance with the relevant laws in a timely and in an appropriate manner.

The Financial Information Disclosure Committee meets at least once every quarter, in principle, and more as deemed necessary.

(d) Appointment and Remuneration Committee

The Appointment and Remuneration Committee consists of five directors, including independent outside directors. The Committee deliberates in advance the appointment of candidates and remuneration for directors (excluding directors serving as members of Audit & Supervisory Committee) for resolution at the Board of Directors Meeting.

The Appointment and Remuneration Committee meets twice a year, in principle, and more as deemed necessary.

(2) Status of Internal Audit and Audit by Audit & Supervisory Committee

(A) Internal Audit

With an auditing staff of eighteen people, the Internal Audit Department verifies, evaluates, and recommends ways to address problems pertaining to compliance status, including observance of relevant laws, internal control initiatives, and other activities of the Company's business execution departments. In addition to ensuring conformity with various rules, the Department obtains an accurate understanding of the risks facing the Company. Based on this understanding, it conducts risk approach audits to evaluate the risk management stance of each relevant entity within the Company, and reports the results of such audits regularly to the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Committee. In addition, the Internal Audit Department conducts direct audits of subsidiaries in the ACOM Group and provides assistance to auditing staff of such subsidiaries, thus ensuring establishment of an effective Group auditing system.

(B) Audit by Audit & Supervisory Committee

Based on auditing policies and auditing plans of the Audit & Supervisory Committee, the Audit & Supervisory Committee attends the Executive Officers' Meeting and other important meetings and committees. Through examination of the Company's business and financial situation, the Audit & Supervisory Committee audits the execution of business by directors (excluding directors serving as members of Audit & Supervisory Committee) and makes appropriate and timely suggestions and recommendations to facilitate establishment of legal compliance and business ethics protocols. In addition, the Audit & Supervisory Committee works together with the accounting auditors and the Internal Audit Department to ensure an accurate grasp of operating status and monitors and verifies the condition of internal control systems. The Audit & Supervisory Committee endeavors to share information in the Group with company auditors of its subsidiaries through active communications with the directors and company auditors of the subsidiaries.

A Member of Audit & Supervisory Committee, Kazuo Fukumoto, has abundant knowledge about financial and accounting affairs with his experience of having served as Chief General Manager of the corporate planning and administration and accounting departments and Executive Officer of the Company, as well as Director in charge of accounting department after his assumption of office.

[Outline of Timely Disclosure System]

(1) Our basic policies for timely disclosure

The Company discloses information based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and timely disclosure rules, etc. established by Tokyo Stock Exchange. The Company has made an effort for strict information management under following basic policies.

Management and disclosure methods for insider information are executed by internal rules of the Company such as "Regulations on prevention of insider trading" and "Manual for insider information management."

○ Based on procedures stipulated by Tokyo Stock Exchange, the Company discloses information in timely and proper manner regarding "Information on business, operation and financial results of listed company that may have an extremely material influence on investors' investment decisions," which comes from Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and timely disclosure rules, etc. established by Tokyo Stock Exchange.

○ Considering the influence on investors' investment decisions and in order to respond to shareholders and investors' expectations, the Company discloses information in timely and proper manner by internal rule and procedures even if the information is not applicable to "Timely disclosure of corporate information," established by Tokyo Stock Exchange.

(2) Status of internal framework regarding timely disclosure

(A) Decision making

For the matters decided by Board of Directors and Executive Officer's Meeting, directors who are in office and in charge, Corporate Planning Dept., Public & Investor Relations Office, General Affairs Dept. and related divisions engage in consultation under the timely disclosure rules. The Company makes judgments on importance of information and necessity of timely disclosure.

(B) Significant events

We have established a structure to have the chief general manager of the General Affairs Dept. be immediately informed from each department, including the subsidiaries, when insider information arises in the Company or its subsidiaries.

Directors who are in office and in charge, Corporate Planning Dept., Public & Investor Relations Office, General Affairs Dept., and related departments hold conferences based on the timely disclosure policy, etc. Significance of the events and the necessity of announcement are evaluated and then reported to Board of Directors and Executive Officer's Meeting.

(C) Information regarding financial results

Information regarding financial results are consulted in advance by "Financial Information Disclosure Committee" where executive managing officer in charge of Treasury Dept. is appointed as the chairman. It is disclosed in timely and proper manner after approval from Board of Directors.

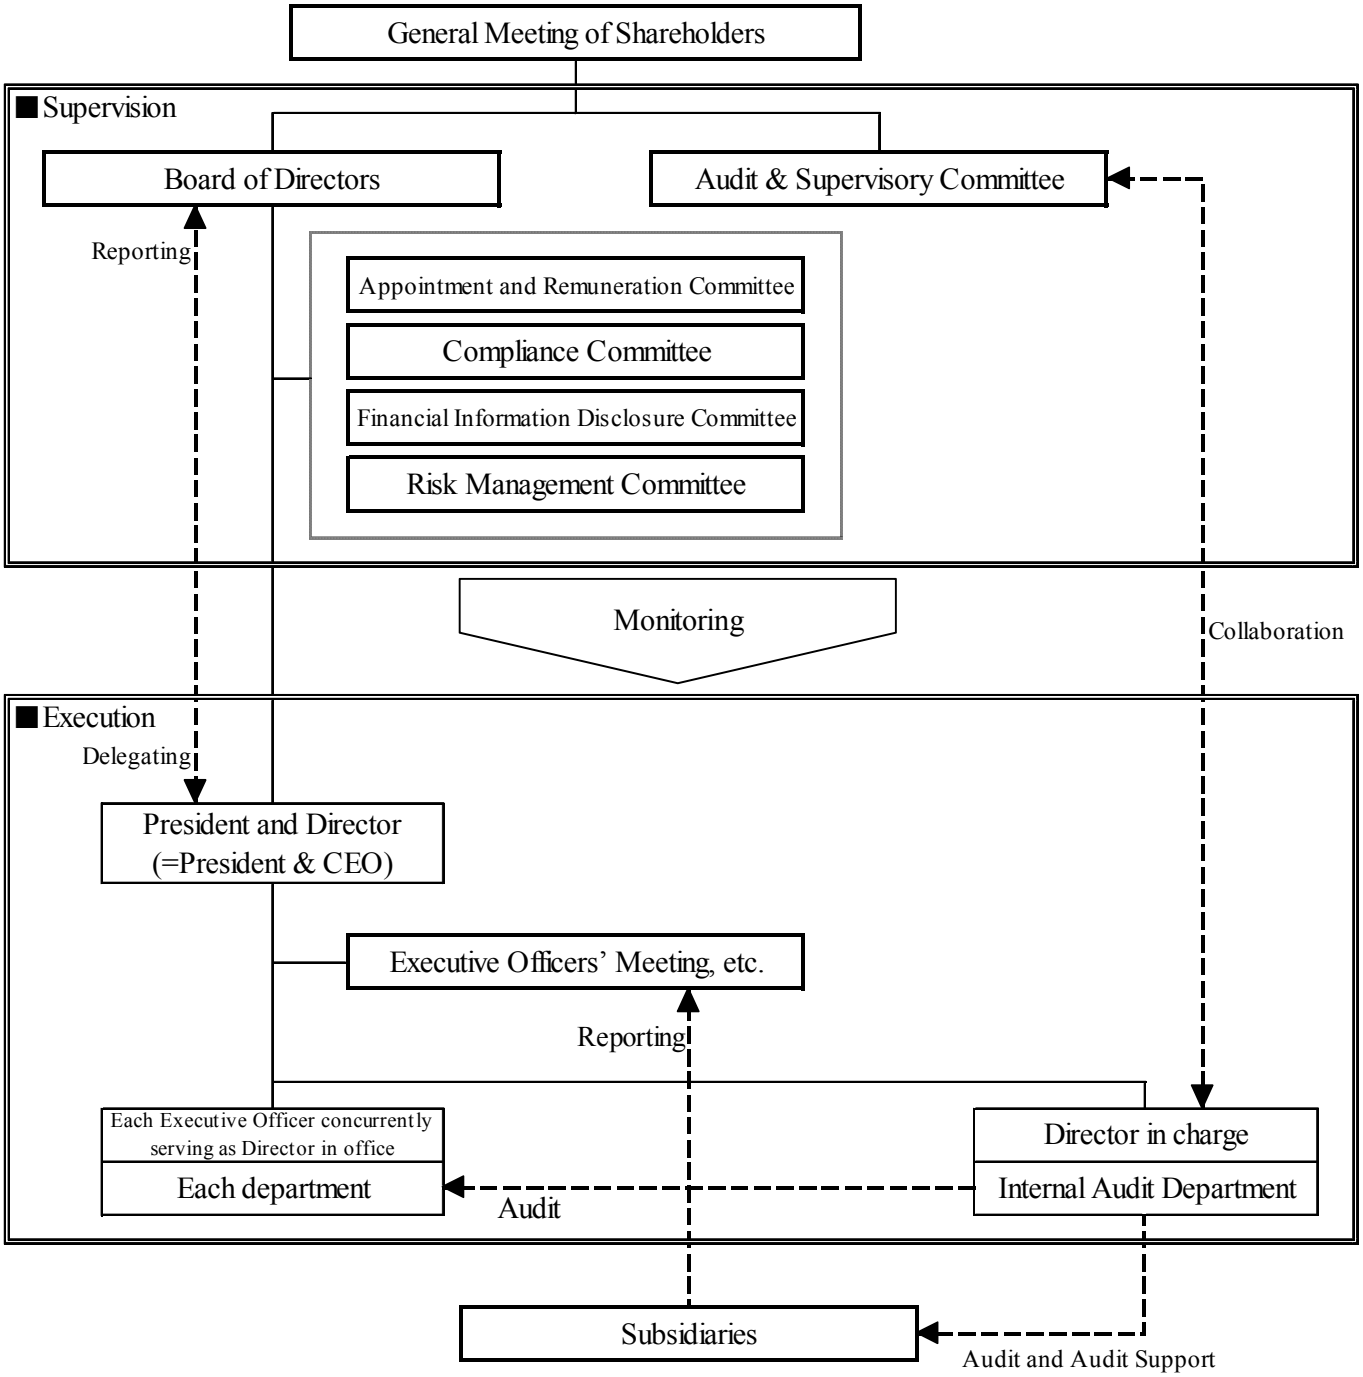

(3) Timely Disclosure Methods

Insider information, which is applicable to timely disclosure rules established by Tokyo Stock Exchange, is disclosed through TDnet provided by Tokyo Stock Exchange. After the information is disclosed, the Company promptly distributes the information to the press and posts it on the Company's website to ensure timely and fair disclosure.

(4) Monitoring for framework of timely disclosure

To ensure that framework of timely disclosure is appropriately working, the company monitors the framework. Internal audit division periodically executes internal audit, and Audit & Supervisory Committee executes the monitoring from their independent and objective standpoints.
