October 8, 2020

Company	Anicom Holdings, Inc.
Representative	Nobuaki Komori, Representative Director (Securities Code: 8715, Tokyo Stock Exchange, First Section)
Contact	Hiroshi Sato, General Manager, Corporate Planning Department

Notice Regarding the Lifting of the Grace Period for Market Reassignment of Our Shares (Number of Shareholders) to the Second Section

The shares of Anicom Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") was announced by Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. ("TSE") on July 10, 2020 to have entered the grace period for market reassignment (regarding the number of shareholders) to its Second Section. It has been announced that the grace period has been lifted. Details are as follows:

1. Reason for lifting the grace period for market reassignment
   As the number of shareholders holding share units of the Company at March 31, 2020, its fiscal year-end, was below the number stipulated in TSE's Securities Listing Regulations, Rule 311, Paragraph 1, Item 1 (2,000 at fiscal year-end), the Company's shares entered the grace period in which "where the number of shareholders does not reach at least 2,000 within the period from the day immediately following the end of a business year that is subject to examination to the day on which one (1) year has passed since that day, the Exchange shall reassign such stock, etc. to the Second Section Market" pursuant to provisions under the Enforcement Rules for Securities Listing Regulations, Rule 311, Paragraph 1, Item 1a. As the number of shareholders surpassed 2,000 at September 30, 2020, the grace period has been lifted today based on the said Regulations, Rule 311, Paragraph 1, Item 1f (a).

2. Lifting date of grace period for market reassignment
   October 8, 2020

3. Future measures
   Going forward, the Company will continue investor relations activities and other measures to raise the number of shareholders. Your support is greatly appreciated.