The corporate governance of NISSO CORPORATION (the "Company") is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The Nisso Group (the "Group") is promoting respect for human rights and the creation of compassionate human relationships based on (our founding philosophy) "Nurturing and Bringing Out the Best in People". With the aim of creating new corporate value that can contribute to society by striving to create and establish its own unique, proprietary technologies, the Company shall ensure the transparency of management by complying with laws and ordinances and disclosing accurate information. The Company recognizes the importance of corporate governance in order to achieve continuous improvement of corporate value, and conducts management focused on compliance. Furthermore, the Company respects the rights of shareholders, and aims to be a company that is trusted by society.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] (UPDATED)

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Initiatives for Sustainability, etc.]

The Group strives to contribute to society through investments in "people", which are the driving force of the Group, and at the same time, it recognizes that responding to climate change, which is essential for the survival of its business, is an important management issue.

In accordance with its Environmental Policy formulated in June 2016, the Company recognizes that rising temperatures due to climate change will have a significant impact on its business, and is working to enhance the quality and quantity of information disclosure based on the TCFD framework of "Governance", "Strategy", "Risk Management", and "Indicators and Targets". In addition, the Company has set a long-term goal of reducing greenhouse gas emissions to "achieve carbon neutrality (net zero emissions) by 2050", and is considering setting medium-term targets to achieve this goal.

The Company's policies and initiatives are as described in "I. 1 [Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] [Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Initiatives for Sustainability, etc.] in this Report.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] (UPDATED)

[Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings]

In principle, the Company shall not hold cross-shareholdings, except in cases where the significance and rationality of strategic holdings are recognized for the purpose of improving corporate value over the medium-to long-term. In addition, the Company shall sell shares that it holds, taking into consideration their impact on the market, if the significance and rationality of the holdings have decreased.

Under this policy, no listed shares were held as of the end of March 2023.

Regarding the exercise of voting rights pertaining to cross-shareholdings, the Company shall determine to vote for or against each proposal from the viewpoint of whether or not it will contribute to the enhancement of the corporate value of the Group and issuing companies. The proposals considered to be particularly important are as follows:

① Appropriation of Surplus ② Election of Corporate Officers ③ Organizational Restructuring ④ Takeover Defense Measure Proposal etc.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]

The Company does not conduct related party transactions in principle, but in cases where they are carried out, in order to ensure that related party transactions do not harm the interests of the Company and the common interests of its shareholders, in accordance with laws and ordinances, the "Regulations of the Board of Directors", and the "Related Party Transaction Management Regulations", and with the consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Company shall obtain approval from the Board of Directors. Furthermore, the Company periodically investigates the status of the transactions on a yearly basis, in addition to reporting and receiving approval for such transactions at the first Board of Directors' Meeting held at the beginning of each fiscal year.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Ensuring Diversity in Appointment of Core Human Resources]

1) Ensuring Diversity

In order to respond to the rapid changes in society and industrial structures, the Company aims to increase overall added value as a company by creating a work environment where diverse employees, including women, the elderly, foreign nationals, and people with disabilities can flourish.

As of April 1, 2023, the ratio of core human resources in managerial positions was 4.3% for female employees, 0.7% for foreign nationals, and 79.7% for mid-career hires.

The Company regards the ratio of female managers as an important issue to be addressed by the Group, and have set a target of 11.5% by April 2025. As of March 31, 2023, the ratio of female managers in the Group was 11.3%.

2) Human Resources Development Policy for Ensuring Diversity, Internal Environment Improvement Policy, and Implementation Status

(Human Resources Development Policy)

At the Company, believing in the potential of each person and bringing out such potential are thoughts that have been consistently included in its philosophy since its foundation, and they are fundamental concepts for promoting human resources development. The Nisso Group will develop human resources who challenge all possibilities in all fields in order to achieve sustainable business growth and realize a sustainable society.

・The Group provides educational opportunities that aim to improve the growth and engagement of each employee

・The Group provides educational opportunities in response to social changes so that diverse human resources can play an active role in a diverse society

・By providing educational opportunities, the Group fosters independence and willingness to take on challenges, and supports the realization of career visions

(Internal Environment Improvement Policy)

As the environment changes at an unprecedented speed, the Company believes that a workplace environment that respects the diverse values and individuality of human resources is important for the sustainable growth of the company.

Based on its founding philosophy of "Nurturing and Bringing Out the Best in People", the Nisso Group is committed to protecting workplace safety, as well as physical and mental health, and practices the creation of workplaces where all employees can have dreams and a sense of fulfillment.

In addition, the Group will respect the human rights of all people, including women, the elderly, foreign nationals, and people with disabilities, and work to build a healthy work environment free from discrimination.

[Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

With regard to the management of reserved funds of the defined benefit corporate pension to which the Group belongs, the Company has established pension regulations/basic management policies, etc., receives periodic operational status reports from life insurance companies and trust banks, which are entrusted management institutions, and administers the appropriate operation/management of corporate pensions.

With regard to making important decisions such as the reexamination of policy asset proportions, the qualitative evaluation of management institutions, and the changes to each policy, the Personnel Division, which is the division in charge of operations, after consulting with the Accounting & Finance Division, shall formulate the necessary drafts, and after receiving advisories from the Asset Management Committee, which consists of the person in charge of the Company's relevant personnel and finance departments and the officer in charge of the relevant finance department, such decisions shall be made at the Board of Directors' Meetings. The Company discloses the management results of reserved funds to its employees.

Furthermore, the division in charge of management strives to enhance its expertise through the participation of various seminars.

[Principle 3.1 Full Disclosure]

(i) Management philosophy, management strategy and management plan

Under the founding philosophy of "Nurturing and Bringing Out the Best in People", the Company has formulated its management philosophy and has provided it on its website. In addition, the Medium-term Management Plan has been explained at briefing sessions for investors, and is provided on the Company's website.

(ii) Basic views and policies on corporate governance

The Company's basic views and policies on corporate governance are as stated in I. 1. Basic Views of this report.

(iii) Policies and procedures for the determination of senior management executives/Managing Directors remuneration by the Board of Directors

Please refer to "II. 1. Organizational Composition and Operation Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods" in this report.

In addition, in order to ensure fairness, transparency, and objectivity of procedures and to further enhance corporate governance, the remuneration of Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) is determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, after consulting with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which is comprised of a majority of Independent External Managing Directors.

(iv) Policies and procedures for the appointment/dismissal of senior management executives and the nomination of Managing Director candidates by the Board of Directors

The nomination of Managing Director candidates (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) is based on the Company's management philosophy and management strategy, taking into account the business content, scale, business environment, etc., and candidates who possess the knowledge, experience and qualifications that can contribute to the fulfillment of the functions of the Board of Directors are selected as candidates at the Board of Directors' Meetings after consulting with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. In addition, the nomination of candidates for Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members is based on the selection criteria prescribed in the Auditing Standards of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and personnel to which the Audit and Supervisory Committee gives consent to are selected as candidates.

Regarding the dismissal of senior management executives, in cases such as where it is deemed that he/she has not been able to sufficiently contribute to the fulfillment of the functions of the Board of Directors, in the same manner as in their appointment, upon consulting with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, deliberations shall be held at the Board of Directors' Meetings, and such resolutions shall be made at the General Meetings of Shareholders.

(v) Explanations with respect to individual appointments/nominations for the appointment/dismissal of senior management executives and the nomination of Managing Director candidates by the Board of Directors

Regarding the individual appointments/nominations of Managing Director candidates, their brief career summaries and reasons for their selection are provided in the "Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders".

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Initiatives for Sustainability, etc.]

In order to achieve its mission of "Creating opportunities and hopes for people to work", the Group recognizes the importance of contributing to society and the environment through investment in "people", which is the driving force behind the Group.

In promoting activities related to sustainability, based on the "Sustainability Policy" formulated in October 2021, the Group aims for sustainable business growth and promotes initiatives to realize a sustainable society by establishing policies on human rights, labor, the environment, health and safety, and ethics.

The Group defines “human resources development” and “diversity” as the most important factors in aiming for sustainable growth of its business. From the perspective of enhancing value, the Group will improve the ratio of highly skilled human resources by developing human resources who can take on the challenge of all possibilities in all fields. In addition, the Group aims to create a workplace where all employees can have dreams and a sense of fulfillment, and build a workplace where diverse human resources can flourish. From the perspective of risk management, the Group recognizes the importance of activities such as respect for human rights, the environment, safety and health, compliance, and local environmental conservation, and is promoting initiatives aimed at reducing various risks and contributing to society.

Furthermore, with the goal of "achieving carbon neutrality (net-zero emissions) by 2050", the Company is also promoting initiatives to combat climate change through its business. Through a series of human resources services activities, the Company will work to protect the global environment and prevent pollution, and by clarifying the financial impact of climate change on the Company, it will aim to improve corporate resilience and realize the key issue of "creating a comfortable workplace".

Please refer to the "Sustainability Report 2022" for the progress of these activities through FY 3/2022.

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.1 Roles/Responsibilities of the Board of Directors (1)]

The Board of Directors makes important decisions on management strategies, management plans and other matters concerning the management of the Company, as well as supervising the execution of business in accordance with laws, the Articles of Incorporation, and other regulations of the Company. With respect to other matters, in order to promptly make decisions concerning the execution of business, the authority related to the execution of business is entrusted to the President & CEO, the Senior Managing Executive Officer, the Managing Executive Officer, Executive Officers, and Department/Division Directors.

[Principle 4.9 Independence Standards and Qualifications for Independent External Managing Directors]

In selecting Independent External Managing Directors, the Company has formulated its own independence standards, as well as meeting the requirements of External Managing Directors as stipulated in the Companies Act and the independence criteria set by the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

Regarding the "Criteria for Appointment of Independent Officers" established by the Company, please refer to section II. 1. "Independent Officers" of this Report.

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1 Appropriate Involvement/Advice of Independent External Managing Directors Through the Establishment of Independent Nomination and Remuneration Committees]

Please refer to II. 1. "Voluntary Establishment of Committees" (Supplementary Explanation) of this Report for more information.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Preconditions for Board of Directors Effectiveness]

The Board of Directors shall maintain the diversity and appropriate number of its members in order to make appropriate decisions in accordance with the Company's business domain/scale. The appointment of Managing Directors is based on the Company's management philosophy and management strategy, with consideration to business contents/scale/business environment, etc., and personnel with knowledge/experience and qualifications that can contribute to the fulfillment of the functions of the Board of Directors are selected.

A skills matrix listing the expertise and experience of each Managing Director is provided on the last page of this Report.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.2 Preconditions for Board of Directors Effectiveness]

The Company's Managing Directors select candidates who can secure the time and effort required to appropriately fulfill their roles and responsibilities. In cases where Managing Directors concurrently serve as officers of other listed companies, the number of such positions shall be kept within a reasonable range, and the status of significant concurrent positions of the Company's Managing Directors are provided in the "Annual Securities Report" and the "Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders".

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Preconditions for Board of Directors Effectiveness]

For the evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors for FY 3/2023, from the viewpoints of 1. Evaluation of effectiveness regarding overall management (ensuring the rights and equality of shareholders, appropriate collaboration with non-shareholder stakeholders, ensuring appropriate information disclosure and transparency, responsibilities of the Board of Directors, etc., dialogue with shareholders), 2. Substantial evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors (the size of the Board of Directors {number of personnel} and the appropriateness of the constituent members, the quality of the Board's decision-making process, the quality of information provided to the Board of Directors), 3. Other (Effectiveness of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee), and 4. Comprehensive evaluations, the Company conducted a nominal questionnaire for all Managing Directors (including 2 External Managing Directors), and all Audit & Supervisory Board Members (including 3 External Audit & Supervisory Board Members) in April 2023. As a result, all of the items have been generally positively evaluated by all Corporate Officers, and the Company recognizes that the effectiveness of the Board of Directors of the Company has been ensured. However, opinions were expressed regarding the promotion of succession planning and the prior explanation to External Corporate Officers regarding the background of the proposals to be submitted. Based on these opinions, the Company will continue to strive to further improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors.

[Supplementary Principle 4.14.2 Managing Director Training]

The Company's Managing Directors shall endeavor to acquire and appropriately update the knowledge deemed necessary to fulfill their roles and responsibilities, for matters such as corporate governance and compliance, and the Company shall provide opportunities for training and support of costs for such purposes. In addition, when an External Managing Director assumes office, the Company shall provide opportunities for them to acquire information about its businesses, business environment, financial condition, organization, etc.

[Principle 5.1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

The Company actively engages in IR and SR activities based on the following basic policy in order to contribute to the sustainable growth and the enhancement of corporate value over the medium-term by promoting constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors.

(1) Designation of management personnel, etc., regarding dialogue with shareholders

The Representative Director & President plays a central role in dialogue with shareholder and investors, and the Managing Executive Officer & CFO, along with the division in charge of IR assist and promote such dialogue.

(2) Initiatives for seamless collaboration within the Company

At the Company, the Accounting, Finance, Legal Affairs, Internal Auditing, and other business divisions/offices, centering on the division in charge of IR, will work together for constructive dialogue with shareholders through the discussion, sharing and preparation of disclosure information, in addition to cooperating with the Corporate Value Enhancement Committee to ensure timely and appropriate disclosures.

(3) Initiatives to enhance means of dialogue other than individual interviews

By recognizing that the General Meeting of Shareholders is a forum for dialogue with shareholders, the Company strives to set the date and time of the General Meeting by avoiding days when such meetings are concentrated, as well as sending out and disclosing convocation notices and reports as soon as possible.

In addition, in order to help deepen the understanding of the Company, it holds Financial Results Briefings and Medium-term Management Plan Briefings for institutional investors and analysts, and conducts Company Briefings for individual investors.

(4) Initiatives for feedback of shareholder opinions and concerns

The Company has established a system for the timely reporting of IR activity reports, including opinions and concerns of shareholders and investors obtained through dialogue, to the Board of Directors, etc.

(5) Initiatives related to management of insider information

Regarding dialogue with shareholders and investors, in addition to establishing "Information Disclosure Regulations" and "Insider Trading Prevention Regulations" in order to prevent material information from being disclosed to some specified persons and to thoroughly manage material information, the Company has selected a Chief Information Officer, and strives to prevent the leakage of material information and insider trading by internal personnel.

Furthermore, the Company will refrain from dialogue with shareholders and investors for a certain period of time prior to the announcement of financial results, setting it as a "silent period".

(6) Other initiatives

In addition to regularly ascertaining the shareholder composition on the register of shareholders, the Company conducts shareholder identification surveys of those who hold substantial shares of the Company, which is utilized in constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors.

Furthermore, the Company will focus further on providing non-financial information such as business strategies and information related to ESG, etc.

Incentive Policies for Managing Directors (UPDATED)	Performance-linked Remuneration

Supplementary Explanation (UPDATED)

The remuneration system for Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) consists of basic remuneration (fixed remuneration) and performance-linked remuneration (monetary remuneration), and the policy for determining the ratio of payments shall be based on the title/position of the Managing Director. The indicator pertaining to performance-linked remuneration (monetary remuneration) is group performance (3-year consolidated net sales growth rate, consolidated operating profit) and individual performance (individual performance targets). The reason for selecting this indicator is to clarify the Managing Directors' responsibilities for achieving short-term performance, and to heighten their motivation to contribute to the achievement of the Medium-term Management Plan, as well as the enhancement of corporate value. The amount of performance-linked remuneration shall be determined by multiplying the standard amount of payment according to the title/position by the achievement level of each indicator and the evaluation weight.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods (UPDATED)	Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

The resolution date of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the remuneration, etc., for Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) was June 28, 2023. The contents of the resolution shall include basic remuneration (fixed remuneration) within the limit of 300 million yen per year (of which the amount for External Managing Directors is within the limit of 30 million yen per year), and performance-linked remuneration (monetary remuneration) linked to the achievement level of company-wide consolidated performance (consolidated operating profit) targets in a single fiscal year as short-term incentive remuneration within the limit of 300 million yen per year (no provision to External Managing Directors).

The resolution date of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the remuneration for Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members was also June 28, 2023, and the amount shall be within the limit of 60 million yen per year.

■ Policy for Determining Managing Director Remuneration, etc.

1. Basic Policy

The remuneration of Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) of the Company shall be based on a remuneration system linked to shareholder interests so that it can fully function as an incentive to continuously enhance corporate value by achieving short-term business results and realizing the Medium-term Management Plan. In addition, when determining the remuneration of individual Managing Directors, the Company's basic policy shall be to set an appropriate level based on their respective responsibilities.

The remuneration level of Managing Directors shall be determined in consideration of the balance between the Company's management content and employee salaries, etc., based on the business scales of companies similar to that of the Company and the remuneration level benchmarked by companies belonging to related industries and business types.

2. Policy on the Determination of the Amount of Individual Remuneration, etc., for Basic Remuneration (Fixed Remuneration) and the Calculation Method Thereof (Includes policies on the timing or conditions under which remuneration, etc., are to be rewarded.)

The basic remuneration of the Company's Managing Directors shall be determined by taking into account the roles and responsibilities, etc., and a fixed amount shall be paid each month.

In addition, the remuneration for External Managing Directors shall be limited to basic remuneration, taking into account the position in which they assume the supervisory function of management.

3. Policy on the Determination of the Content and Amount of Performance-linked Remuneration and the Calculation Method Thereof (Includes policies on the timing or conditions under which remuneration, etc., are to be rewarded.)

Performance-linked remuneration shall be paid at a fixed time each year in an amount calculated in accordance with the target achievement rate, and is done by clarifying the responsibility for achieving short-term performance, setting evaluation indicators to increase motivation to contribute to the achievement indicators to increase the motivation to contribute to the achievement of the Medium-term Management Plan as well as the enhancement of corporate value.

Furthermore, the amount of performance-linked remuneration shall vary in the range of 0% and 150% depending on the achievement rate of the indicator.

a. Indicators related to performance-linked remuneration

(Group performance)

· 3-year consolidated net sales growth rate

In order to measure the growth potential of the Company's business activities, the consolidated net sales growth rate shall be used as an indicator.

In addition, in order not to be excessively affected by environmental changes in a single fiscal year, the criteria shall be based on the 3-year average including the current fiscal year.

· Consolidated operating profit (initial target ratio and Medium-term Management Plan target ratio)

In order to measure the profitability of the Company's business activities, consolidated operating profit shall be used as an indicator.

The Company shall measure the achievement level of both its initial targets and the targets of the Medium-term Management Plan.

(Individual performance)

· Individual performance targets

Quantitative and qualitative individual performance targets shall be set for each individual and deliberated by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

With regard to the evaluation of target achievement levels, the result of the initial targets shall be deliberated by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

b. Calculation method of performance-linked remuneration payment amount

The formula for calculating the amount of performance-linked remuneration by individual is as follows:

Performance-linked remuneration payment amount = standard amount of payment by position x indicator payment rate*

*Indicator payment rate

The indicator payment rate is calculated by multiplying the achievement level of each indicator by the evaluation weight.

4. Policy on the Determination of the Ratio of the Amount of Basic Remuneration, Performance-linked Remuneration, etc., to the Amount of Individual Remuneration, etc., of Managing Directors

Regarding the remuneration ratio by type of Managing Directors (excluding External Managing Directors), the higher the position, the higher the weight of performance-linked remuneration shall be.

5. Matters related to Decisions on the Content of Individual Remuneration of Managing Directors

Regarding the amount of remuneration for each individual Managing Director, based on the resolution of the Board of Directors, the Representative Director shall be entrusted with the determination of its specific content. In addition, the content of such authority shall be the amount of basic remuneration and performance-linked remuneration for each Managing Director.

The Board of Directors shall consult with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee on the draft so that such authority can be appropriately exercised by the Representative Director, and the Representative Director who has received the above mandate shall determine the content of the individual remuneration based on the report.

[Supporting System for External Managing Directors]

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance Structure) (UPDATED)

a. Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors is comprised of 8 Managing Directors (including 5 External Managing Directors). In addition to holding regular Board of Directors' Meetings once a month, in principle, a system has been established where extraordinary meetings can be flexibly held when important matters arise. As a supervisory body for decision-making and business execution of important matters concerning the management of the Company, the Board of Directors examines the validity, efficiency and fairness of management, and resolves matters that are stipulated by laws and ordinances as well as other matters related to important business tasks.

b. Audit and Supervisory Committee

In order to further strengthen the supervisory function of the Board of Directors and corporate governance, the Company transitioned from a company with an Audit and Supervisory Board to a company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee with the approval of the 43rd Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 28, 2023. By establishing the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Company is strengthening the supervisory function of the Board of Directors and further enhancing corporate governance.

The Audit and Supervisory Committee is comprised of 4 Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members (including 4 External Managing Directors). Audit policies and audit plans are discussed and decided by the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

In addition to striving to communicate with Managing Directors and employees who are not Audit & Supervisory Committee Members to gather information, Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members attend Board of Directors' meetings, receive reports on the status of the execution of duties from Managing Directors and employees, request explanations as deemed necessary, inspect important decision-making documents etc., and investigate the status of the Company's business operations and assets.

The Audit and Supervisory Committee convenes on a regular basis once a month, and extraordinary meetings are held occasionally as deemed necessary.

Furthermore, the Audit and Supervisory Committee works closely with the Internal Auditing Office and the Accounting Auditor, and strives to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of audits.

c. Nomination and Remuneration Committee

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is comprised of 2 Independent External Managing Directors and the Representative Director, President & CEO, and is chaired by an Independent External Managing Director.

For the purpose of enhancing the transparency of personnel affairs and remuneration, etc., of Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers, it will report to the Board of Directors matters concerning (i) the personnel affairs of Representative Directors, Managing Directors, Executive Officers and Managing Directors of subsidiaries, as well as successor planning, and (ii) the remuneration structure and remuneration levels of Managing Directors and Executive Officers based on the evaluation of the company's business performance, etc.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will be convened at any time as deemed necessary.

d. Management Committee

The Management Committee is comprised of Internal Managing Directors, the Managing Director who is a full-time Audit & Supervisory Committee Member, Executive Officers, Department Directors and the Internal Auditing Office Director, and convenes once a month. It ascertains management figures, and discusses/reports on important measures and policies.

e. Group Meetings

Group Meetings are comprised of the Company's Managing Directors, representatives of affiliated companies, part-time managing directors of affiliated companies and the Corporate Planning Division Director, and convenes once a month. Reports regarding the status of business operations as well as business performance results are received at Group Meetings, and business plans and significant factors that contribute to their differences are confirmed. In addition, progress reports and policy guidance regarding important matters such as management issues are conducted.

f. Corporate Value Enhancement Committee

The Corporate Value Enhancement Committee is comprised of the Company's Managing Directors, Executive Officers, representatives of subsidiaries, the Company's Internal Auditing Office Director and the Council Chairperson. It conducts reports・deliberations of issues for the prevention of corporate scandals for the entire Group, the strengthening of our multifaceted corporate structure, and the realization of sustainable businesses, as well as constructing a management system to enhance corporate value over the medium- to long-term.

The Sustainability Council, which belongs to the Corporate Value Enhancement Committee, clarifies the roles that the Company should fulfill through its businesses to shareholders, society, and other stakeholders, establishes the structures to put them into practice, and promotes their appropriate operations・checks. The Internal Control・Compliance Council establishes, operates, and checks the internal control structure of the Group, reviews its compliance observance status, and promotes risk assessment・countermeasures. In order to make effective use of the Group's resources, assets, and capital, the Investment and Loan Review Council promotes the establishment of standards and management methods that include not only financial aspects but also non-financial aspects such as environmental・social impacts.

The Committee convenes 3 times a year, but extraordinary meetings are held as deemed necessary.

g. Internal Audits and Audit and Supervisory Committee Audits

The Internal Auditing Office, which is under the direct control of the Representative Director & President, is in charge of internal audits, and has 4 staff members in addition to one Office Director. Based on the fiscal year plan, the Internal Auditing Office conducts audits for all departments and divisions of Headquarters, Sales Offices and affiliated companies, prepares audit reports, and reports the results to the Board of Directors and the Representative Director & President. In addition, instructions for improvements based on the results of the audits are issued to the department/division that has received the audits, and the status of improvements are reported by them and confirmed by the Internal Auditing Office without delay. Moreover, follow-up audits and special audits are conducted as deemed necessary.

Audit and Supervisory Committee audits, which are based on its auditing plans created for each fiscal year, are implemented with a focus on the legality and validity of the Managing Directors' execution of duties, as well as the maintenance・operational status of internal control systems as priority items.

Furthermore, the Audit and Supervisory Committee exchanges information with the Internal Auditing Office and the Accounting Auditor as deemed necessary in order to enhance mutual cooperation.

h. Status of Accounting Audits

The Company has concluded an auditing contract with Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC. In addition to receiving audits on periodic financial statements, etc., from Ernst & Young ShinNihon LLC, the Company has been examined for the maintenance・operational status of systems and procedures related to internal control, accounting systems and accounting records that are within the scope deemed necessary for auditing purposes, and moreover, have received reports on the results.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance Structure (UPDATED)

The Company aims to "strengthen the audit and supervisory functions of the Board of Directors" and "further accelerate management decision-making and business execution" to appropriately audit and supervise the execution of duties by the Managing Directors and enhance the check-and-balance function for management.

Based on the above, in addition to establishing a General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and an Accounting Auditor, the Company has set up an office in charge of internal auditing to monitor business operations on a daily basis. The current structure has been adopted since the Company has determined that the mutual cooperation among these organizations will ensure more soundness, efficiency and transparency of management.

IV. Matters Related to the Internal Control System

1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and the Progress of System Development (UPDATED)

At the Board of Directors' Meeting held on March 17, 2017, the Company has made resolutions that define the "Basic Policy on Internal Control Systems". The contents of the policy are as follows:

1. System to ensure that the execution of duties by the Group's Managing Directors is in accordance with laws, ordinances and the Articles of Incorporation

(1) In order to carry out sound and sincere business activities with compliance as well as high moral values, the Company has established the "Nisso Group Charter of Corporate Behavior", and concrete guidelines for personal conduct, the "Nisso Group Employee Code of Conduct". In addition, the Managing Directors have taken the initiative to implement these measures, and the Company shall continue to strive to ensure the thorough awareness of the measures by employees by posting them on the in-house intra-system.

(2) In order to ensure the thorough compliance of laws and ordinances, corporate ethics and internal regulations, the Company has established "Compliance Regulations", and has set up a "Corporate Value Enhancement Committee" chaired by the President to promote sound and sincere business activities.

(3) Managing Directors who discover any material violation of laws or ordinances or any other material facts concerning compliance, shall report such matters to the Board of Directors.

(4) The Group has taken a resolute stance against unreasonable demands from anti-social forces, and has established concrete action guidelines which demonstrate that it has no relationships whatsoever with them. The Group shall continue to ensure the thorough awareness of such matters to Managing Directors and employees in order to eliminate any relationships with these forces.

(5) In order to preserve corporate assets and improve management efficiency, the Company has established "Internal Audit Regulations", and has set up an independent Internal Auditing Office. The Group shall continue the auditing of its entire operations in regards to its compliance with laws and ordinances and the status of the execution of its business operations.

2. System concerning storage and control of information related to the execution of duties of Managing Directors

(1) The Company has established "Document Control Regulations" for documents such as the minutes of the Board of Directors' Meetings and documents pertaining to other significant decisions as prescribed by laws and ordinances, in addition to properly storing and managing such documents after clarifying management responsibilities. Also, the Company shall continue to maintain a system which allows for the viewing of such documents as deemed necessary.

(2) The Company has established "Information Management Regulations" for confidential information, and shall continue to ensure security.

3. Regulations and other systems concerning the management of risk of loss

(1) The Company has established "Risk Management Regulations" for risks affecting business objectives (hereinafter referred to as "risks"), and in order to maintain a system that can adequately respond to such risks, it has set up a "Corporate Value Enhancement Committee" (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee") which each company in the Group takes part in. The Committee shall convene in accordance with the regulations of the meeting body and shall be convened as deemed necessary.

(2) Based on the "Risk Management Regulations", the Committee identifies, analyzes and evaluates concrete risks, and has established a policy to correspond to such matters. In addition, in the event where an emergency response is needed as the Committee monitors the status of risk management, it shall convene an emergency committee to take the necessary measures.

(3) The Committee shall report any matters concerning risks to the Board of Directors on a regular basis.

(4) Each Division Director of the Group shall be responsible for risk management within their respective divisions, and must promptly report to the Committee Secretariat in the event that an emergency situation requiring reporting on risks arises. In addition, they are required to administer appropriate procedures, such as incorporating countermeasures in their business plans to respond to significant risks identified within their division of responsibility, as well as other individual risk-related matters.
(5) Each Division Director of the Group, after sharing information with relevant divisions, shall clarify response systems, and must take appropriate measures regarding risks that may affect multiple divisions, as well as other significant risks that may be actualized.
(6) In order to respond promptly and accurately to the actualization of risks that may affect its business objectives, the Group has established response systems, procedures, and regulations in advance, and shall maintain and strive to improve the structure of reporting systems in the event of a crisis, as well as processes capable of responding quickly and appropriately.
(7) The Group shall formulate a business continuity plan and strive to develop a system that can promptly carry out business continuity after the occurrence of a disaster.

4. System to ensure the efficient execution of duties by Managing Directors
(1) The Group has established "Regulations of the Board of Directors", and shall clarify the governance of the Board of Directors and matters to be discussed.
(2) To ensure the smooth and efficient operation of duties of Managing Directors and employees, the Board of Directors has established "Organization・Division of Duties Regulations" and "Regulations of Administrative Authority", and shall determine matters regarding the segregation of duties of each division, as well as the fundamental roles, duties and authorities of each position.

5. System to ensure that the execution of duties by employees is in accordance with laws, ordinances and the Articles of Incorporation
(1) In order to carry out sound and sincere business activities with compliance as well as high moral values, the Company has established the "Nisso Group Charter of Corporate Behavior", and concrete guidelines for personal conduct, the "Nisso Group Employee Code of Conduct". In addition, the Managing Directors have taken the initiative to implement these measures, and the Company shall continue to strive to ensure the thorough awareness of the measures by employees by posting them on the in-house intra-system.
(2) In order to ensure the thorough compliance of laws and ordinances, corporate ethics and internal regulations, the Company has established "Compliance Regulations", and has set up a "Corporate Value Enhancement Committee" chaired by the President to promote sound and sincere business activities.
(3) The Group has established "Whistleblower Protection Regulations", and shall institute a system for the early detection of violations of laws and regulations with regard to the Group, as well as ensuring that the informant is not subjected to any disadvantages.
(4) The Group has taken a resolute stance against unreasonable demands from anti-social forces, and has established concrete action guidelines which demonstrate that it has no relationships whatsoever with them. The Group shall continue to ensure the thorough awareness of such matters to Managing Directors and employees in order to eliminate any relationships with these forces.
(5) In order to preserve corporate assets and improve management efficiency, the Company has established "Internal Audit Regulations", and has set up an independent Internal Auditing Office. The Group shall continue the auditing of its entire operations in regards to its compliance with laws and ordinances and the status of the execution of its business operations.

6. System to ensure appropriate business operations in the Corporate Group consisting of the Company and its subsidiaries
(1) In order to promote the fair business activities of the Group, the Company has established the Group-wide "Nisso Group Charter of Corporate Behavior", and concrete guidelines for personal conduct, the "Nisso Group Employee Code of Conduct". Furthermore, each company in the Group shall continue to strive to ensure the thorough awareness of these matters by Managing Directors and employees.
(2) In order to strengthen the management of the Group, the Company has established "Affiliated Companies Management Regulations". In addition to requiring the reporting of significant matters concerning the business operations of subsidiaries, the Company shall refer matters of particular importance to the Board of Directors.
(3) The Company's Internal Auditing Office shall conduct audits of each company in the Group on a regular basis and when deemed necessary. Furthermore, the Internal Auditing Office shall cooperate with the Audit and Supervisory Committee and the Accounting Auditor to strive to ensure the proper business operations of the Group through audits.

7. Matters concerning employees and their appointment to assist in the fulfillment of duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee when requested
(1) The Company shall immediately appoint employees to assist in the fulfillment of the duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee when requested to do so.

8. Matters concerning the independency of employees in the preceding item from Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members)
(1) The Company shall have employees assisting in the fulfillment of the duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee execute their duties under the direction of the Audit & Supervisory Committee Members whom they are assisting.
(2) The Company shall consult with the Audit and Supervisory Committee in advance about the decision of matters concerning personnel affairs of employees assisting in the fulfillment of the duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

9. System for Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and employees to submit reports to the Audit and Supervisory Committee and other systems related to submitting reports to the Audit and Supervisory Committee
(1) The Company shall request the attendance of Audit & Supervisory Committee Members for the "Board of Directors' Meetings", the "Corporate Value Enhancement Committee Meetings", and other meetings of importance.
(2) The Company's Representative Director and the Internal Auditing Office shall maintain cooperation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee and exchange information on a regular basis.
(3) Managing Directors (excluding Managing Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and employees of the Group shall respond to requests in the event they are asked by the Audit and Supervisory Committee to submit reports on important information.
(4) The Company shall ensure that persons who submit reports to the Audit and Supervisory Committee do not receive disadvantageous treatment due to reasons for submitting the report.

10. Other systems to ensure the effective implementation of audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee
(1) The Company shall request the attendance of Audit & Supervisory Committee Members for the "Board of Directors' Meetings", the "Corporate Value Enhancement Committee Meetings", and other meetings of importance.
(2) In response to the request of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Company shall establish a system that allows for the viewing of important documents such as minutes of meetings.
(3) The Company shall formulate a budget after confirming with the Audit and Supervisory Committee about the expenses required to perform its duties, in addition to establishing a system for the prepayment or reimbursement of expenses incurred when executing its duties.

2. Basic Views on Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and Progress of Related Efforts

The Company's corporate group, its special stakeholders, shareholders, business partners, etc., have no relations with anti-social forces.

The Company respects the "Charter of Corporate Behavior & its Implementation Guidance (6th Edition)" (September 2010) and the “Guideline for How Companies Prevent Damage from Anti-Social Forces” (agreed upon at a meeting in June 2007 of cabinet ministers responsible for anti-crime measures) published by the Japan Business Federation (Keidanren) as a basic policy, and is establishing a system according to these guidelines. The policies and standards of the corporate group are set forth in the "Nisso Group Charter of Corporate Behavior" and the "Nisso Group Employee Code of Conduct", and are distributed to each employee in the form of the "NISSO Michishirube" (literal meaning: "NISSO Guidelines"), which are leaflets created by the Company. Moreover, the Company has been making efforts to ensure that all employees are aware of its contents through opportunities such as important internal meetings, etc. Through these measures, it is understood that the isolation from anti-social forces by all Corporate Officers and employees of the corporate group is extremely important and an everlasting theme of the Company.

As for internal systems, the Corporate Value Enhancement Committee has been established as a meeting body for compliance and risk management, and the division responsible for matters related to anti-social forces is the General Affairs Division. Moreover, the Company has established the "Anti-social Forces Countermeasure Regulations" and the "Manual for Responding to Unjust Demands by Anti-social Forces", as practical regulations・manuals, in addition to striving to thoroughly enforce matters such as the inclusion of an anti-social forces elimination clause in all contracts that it concludes with each of its business partners.

Regarding its cooperation with external organizations, the Company has joined the Kanagawa Prefectural Center for Removal of Criminal Organizations (a public interest incorporated foundation) in September 2016, and has been continuously striving to collect information on anti-social forces. In addition, the Company's headquarters and each office have appointed persons responsible for the prevention of unjust demands (headquarters: General Affairs Section Manager, each office: Office Manager) who conduct notifications to the police station under relevant jurisdictions, and the Company has established a system to cooperate with the police, in conjunction with a system where it can consult with corporate attorneys.

The procedures for checking the Company's business partners', etc., associations with anti-social forces are as follows:

1. For new business partners
   Based on the "Anti-social Forces Countermeasure Regulations", the basic procedure is to perform an article search using specialized services and an information search of materials provided by the Kanagawa Prefectural Center for Removal of Criminal Organizations, in addition to concluding contracts with the inclusion of anti-social forces elimination clauses in transaction agreements or the use of anti-social forces elimination memorandums.
2. For existing business partners
   Based on the "Anti-social Forces Countermeasure Regulations", an article search using specialized services is performed once a year, and a recheck utilizing the information search provided by the Kanagawa Prefectural Center for Removal of Criminal Organizations is conducted.
3. For shareholders
   In cases where it is possible to reflect the intention of the Company, such as in the third-party allocation of shares, an article search using specialized services is performed and an investigation utilizing the information search provided by the Kanagawa Prefectural Center for Removal of Criminal Organizations is conducted in advance.
