Announcement of used disposable contact lens case collection aiming for environment-friendly contact lens distribution

Menicon Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, the “Company”) launched the Menicon FUTURE DEVICE LABORATORY in Tohoku University on April 1, 2024. It promotes research on the scientific evidence-based efficient recycling of plastics used in the process of contact lens production and distribution. The Company announced that collection boxes will be installed for used disposable contact lens cases in all Miru stores of the Company’s Group, aiming to establish a new environmental-friendly contact lens distribution system for society by promoting the collection of cases.
