DATA QVIC, Part of the Yamaguchi Financial Group, Launches Sales of exaBase Generative AI to Support Regional DX

- Leveraging the Strength of Over 800 Companies to Enhance Business Efficiency in Yamaguchi, Hiroshima, and Fukuoka -

Exa Enterprise AI Inc. (Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director: Takuma Oue; hereinafter “Exa Enterprise AI”), a group company of ExaWizards Inc., has signed a sales agency agreement with DATA QVIC Inc. (Shimonoseki City, Yamaguchi Prefecture; CEO: Yusuke Tagamoto; hereinafter “DATA QVIC”), a subsidiary of Yamaguchi Financial Group. The agreement pertains to the corporate ChatGPT service "exaBase Generative AI," which has the No. 1 market share in Japan. DATA QVIC, with their track record of promoting DX to over 800 companies in Yamaguchi, Hiroshima, and Fukuoka, will drive the sales and implementation support of exaBase Generative AI to enhance operational efficiency in these regions.

Exa Enterprise AI aims to unlock human potential and create a society where new challenges can be addressed by providing generative AI services and products to enhance the productivity of Japanese companies and organizations.

☑ Generative AI in Regional Business

exaBase Generative AI, provided by Exa Enterprise AI, has been utilized by 740 companies and over 70,000 users since its launch as a paid service in June 2023. It offers cost-effective access to high-performance AI such as GPT-4o for rapid high-precision responses and o3-mini for logical reasoning. It also features built-in security features such as prohibited word registration and confidential information blocking, ensuring that users can easily and securely utilize the latest generative AI models.

DATA QVIC envisions making the Yamaguchi Financial Group area (Yamaguchi, Hiroshima, and Fukuoka) the most advanced digital transformation (DX) region in Japan. It has contributed to regional business growth and DX development by supporting DX initiatives at over 800 local companies.

To promote the adoption of exaBase Generative AI, Exa Enterprise AI has signed a sales agency agreement with DATA QVIC, a company with a strong track record in supporting regional DX. This collaboration will accelerate the deployment of exaBase Generative AI in Yamaguchi, Hiroshima, and Fukuoka. DATA QVIC will also utilize exaBase Generative AI internally to improve operational efficiency in tasks such as brainstorming client proposal scenarios, regulation searches, and summarizing external documents. Exa Enterprise AI will continue to support this initiative to advance DX in regional areas.

☑ About exaBase Generative AI
exaBase Generative AI has been used by 740 companies and over 70,000 users since its paid service launch in June 2023. It addresses security and compliance issues for corporate use, allowing administrators to monitor usage and register prohibited words. Users can estimate productivity improvements from using generative AI and view them as a graph. The service also supports the use of unique company data, allowing users and administrators to upload files specific to their company for discussion and content generation.
