Notice Concerning Purchase of Shares by a Japan Eyewear Holdings Officer

Japan Eyewear Holdings Co., Ltd. (“JEH”) announces that an outside attorney who is independent from JEH commenced an investigation into a suspected violation of insider trading regulations (the “Matter”) conducted by a JEH officer described in the “(Progress of Disclosed Matters) Notice Regarding Confirmation of Internal Control System Related to Cancellation of the Secondary Offering of Shares and Withdrawal of Application for Change of Market Category” announced on February 17, 2025, as described below. JEH will make the utmost effort to restore the trust of its customers, shareholders and other parties involved by obtaining objective investigation results and leading them to effective measures to prevent a recurrence.

JEH sincerely apologizes for the great inconvenience and concern this has caused its customers, shareholders and other parties involved.

1. Entrusted Matters
   - Conducti a fact-finding investigation into the Matter
   - Identify and analyze the cause of the occurrence
   - Propose recurrence prevention measures

2. Future Plans
   JEH will fully cooperate with the outside attorney in the investigation. If any matters that need to be disclosed are discovered, JEH will make an announcement in a timely and appropriate manner. Additionally, JEH will determine disciplinary actions and recurrence prevention measures based on the results of the investigation.
