Announcement of the Sell-Out of the Fractional Aircraft Investment Product "F.bit Aircraft Fractional Investment Product No. 1" for Individual Investors

Financial Partners Group Co., Ltd. (FPG) is pleased to announce that, as previously stated in our May 12, 2025, announcement titled "Announcement of the Launch of Japan's First Publicly Offered Beneficiary Certificate Issuing Trust for Individual Investors: A Fractional Aircraft Investment Product (JPY 1 Million per Unit)", the fractional aircraft investment product "F.bit Aircraft Fractional Investment Product No. 1 (with transfer restrictions and no currency hedge)" (hereinafter referred to as "F.bit No. 1") has concluded its offering on July 18 through our wholly-owned subsidiary, FPG Securities Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "FPG Securities"). Due to strong demand, the number of applications significantly exceeded the number of units issued, and as determined by the lottery, the product is now sold out.

Today, F.bit No. 1 has been established as a trust and has commenced management. FPG Securities will carry out asset management operations as the asset manager for F.bit No. 1.

Guided by the corporate philosophy, "Embracing the future through finance," FPG will continue to deliver truly valuable assets to each individual through the innovative form of fractionalization, support customers who are willing to take on challenges, and contribute to the creation of a strong and prosperous society.

Note:
This document is a press release intended solely for public disclosure regarding the sell-out of the aircraft fractional investment product for individual investors using the beneficiary certificate issuing trust. It is not intended to solicit or promote individual financial products, either within Japan or internationally.
