Notice of appearance on NHK program

We are pleased to announce that our company will appear in the NHK special program "Activists and Japanese Corporations ～Behind the Scenes of Attack and Defense～" to be broadcast on Sunday, June 29, from 21:00 to 21:50.

A portion of the program will feature the status of the Company's dialogue with institutional investors and the manufacturing site.

1. Date and Time: Sunday, June 29, 2025, 21:00 - 21:50 (NHK General)
2. Program Name: "Activists and Japanese Corporations ～Behind the Scenes of Attack and Defense～
3. Contents: "Activists" whose presence has drawn unusual attention. Following a series of controversies surrounding Fuji TV, the major shareholder of Fuji's parent company demanded an investigation into its governance. At the shareholders' meeting in late June, the shareholder also called for management reforms. This year, the number of companies nationwide that received shareholder proposals at their general meetings reached a record high. While some of these demands may benefit the companies, there are also concerns about "side effects" that could leave other stakeholders, such as employees and local communities, behind. We delve into the behind-the-scenes dynamics of this ongoing battle.
