Notice Regarding Execution of Share Purchase Agreement for Club Groupe by Our Consolidated Subsidiary

We hereby announce that Antalis France (headquartered in Paris, France), an operating company of our consolidated subsidiary Antalis S.A.S (also headquartered in Paris, France; hereinafter “Antalis”), has entered into a share purchase agreement to acquire all shares of Club Groupe S.A.S, Digital Printing France S.A.S, and Technical Digital Printing S.A.S —based in Trappes, France and collectively referred to as “Club Groupe”— which are engaged in the visual communication business in France, thereby making them subsidiaries.

1 . Purpose of the Share Acquisition

Club Groupe is a corporate group operating multiple locations across France and offering product sales and solutions in the Visual Communication sector. Its business includes the sale of large format printing (LFP) equipment, spare parts, and consumables (such as media and ink), as well as a wide range of services including equipment installation and maintenance.

This transaction marks Antalis’s second acquisition in the French visual communication market, following the business acquisition of S.A.S Poitou Adhésifs in October last year. Antalis has decided to enter into this share purchase agreement based on expectations that the transaction will further strengthen its leading position in the French visual communication market, enhance its hardware offering, and deepen relationships with strategic suppliers.
