“WiFi-rental.com®” has a wide range of pick-up and return places, including home delivery, convenience stores nationwide, and airport counters, and offers services that are tailored to the usage scenarios of our customers, such as travel, business trips, and temporary return to Japan. Additionally, with our comprehensive customer support, we quickly resolve any customers’ questions or issues, and further enhance the convenience of our service with same-day shipping available, delivered quickly when it is needed.

Furthermore, we prepare a variety of rate plans based on data volume to provide the best plan for their own use in order to meet the customers’ diverse needs.

■ Pick-up and return service at airport counters and pick-up service at convenience stores

We prioritize customer convenience and offer pick-up and return services at airport counters with the largest number of airport locations and counters in the industry, allowing you to rent Wi-Fi smoothly when traveling or on a business trip.

Furthermore, we also offer a pick-up service at convenience stores, allowing you to pick up your Wi-Fi device anytime at a convenience store near your home or workplace without worrying about the time.

■ 24 hour Wi-Fi support and same-day shipping service

“WiFi-rental.com®” has comprehensive customer support to help you solve any inquiries or problems you may have 24 hours a day.

Through a variety of support means, including an automated chat function on our official LINE, we can address all customer problems and provide a safe and reliable support environment at any time.

In addition, we generally offer same-day shipping for applications received by 4:00pm, allowing us to flexibly accommodate sudden business trips and travel plans, and to deliver Wi-Fi devices to you as early as the next day.

■ The choice of rate plan

“WiFi-rental.com®” prepares a wide range of plans with different volumes and price ranges to suit your usage. The lineup includes the latest Ultra-High-Speed 5G Plans, as well as data volumes ranging from 5GB to unlimited data per month (*1). In addition, we can meet a wide range of customers’ needs according to their usage, such as providing triple area compatible devices that allow stable use depending on the location by automatically connecting to the most suitable line from the three major domestic carriers.

(*1) If excessive data communication is detected during use, we may impose the communication speed limit.

We will continue to listen sincerely to our customers and strive for further growth by providing services that exceed their expectations. We are deeply grateful for the continued support of our customers and will continue to provide services that pursue quality and convenience, always putting customer satisfaction first.
