Regarding the Withdrawal of the Final Appeal and the Petition for Acceptance of the Final Appeal on Case for Violation of the Antimonopoly Act (Lawsuit to Revoke the Cease and Desist Order)

As announced in “Regarding Filing a Final Appeal and the Petition for Acceptance of the Final Appeal on Case for Violation of the Antimonopoly Act” dated May 26, 2025, in a lawsuit (administrative lawsuit) filed by Kajima Corporation (the “Company”) to request the revocation of a cease and desist order issued by the Japan Fair Trade Commission over a construction project for the Chuo Shinkansen led by Central Japan Railway Company, the Company, on May 15, 2025, received a judgment to dismiss the appeal from the Tokyo High Court. Subsequently, the Company filed a final appeal and a petition for acceptance of the final appeal to the Supreme Court, due to its dissatisfaction with this judgment.

However, following the Supreme Court’s recent decision to dismiss the final appeal in a criminal lawsuit involving the same matter (please refer to “Regarding the Decision (Final Appeal Hearing) on Case for Violation of the Antimonopoly Act” dated September 15, 2026), we have taken this decision seriously and, as of today, have withdrawn the final appeal and petition for acceptance of the final appeal in the administrative lawsuit.

As a result, all lawsuits related to this case have concluded.

The Company will continue to rigorously enforce compliance and promote measures to prevent recurrences, and we will strive to restore confidence in the Company. For details on the measures to prevent recurrences implemented following this incident, please refer to the attachment to the timely disclosure dated September 15, 2026, mentioned above.

It should be noted that, notwithstanding the filing of the aforementioned administrative lawsuit, all measures required under the cease and desist order have already been fully performed, therefore, no change is to be made to the forecast of consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027 announced on May 14, 2026.
