(6) Conditions for Removal of Transfer Restrictions (Addition)

Notwithstanding the provisions of (1) above, if a tender offer as prescribed in Article 27-2 et seq. of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (the "Tender Offer") is commenced for the Company's common shares during the transfer restriction period, and the Board has resolved to support the Tender Offer and recommend that shareholders tender their shares (unless the Company subsequently changes its opinion prior to a request by the eligible Executive Officer), the Company shall remove the transfer restrictions on the Shares upon written request from the eligible Executive Officer for the purpose of tendering in the Tender Offer. Furthermore, if the eligible Executive Officer tenders all or part of the Shares but the Tender Offer is not successfully completed, the removal of transfer restrictions shall retroactively lose its effect, and any Shares returned to the officer shall once again be subject to the transfer restrictions stipulated in 7 (1) above.
