Notice Regarding Strategic Partnership with Gabriel Holding A/S

Ultrafabrics Holdings Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) hereby announces that a group company has entered into a strategic partnership agreement with Gabriel Holding A/S (“Gabriel”), a Denmark-based European textile manufacturer serving the furniture and interior design industries. Through this partnership, the Company and its group companies (collectively, the “Ultrafabrics Group”) aim to expand sales of premium synthetic leather in the European market.

Founded in 1851, Gabriel is one of Europe’s leading textile manufacturers and has long-standing relationships with premium furniture manufacturers, architects and designers. Through this partnership, the Ultrafabrics Group will leverage Gabriel’s established sales organization and market expertise to increase awareness of the Ultrafabrics brand and expand sales across Europe.

Genuine leather remains widely favored in Europe’s premium furniture and interior design market. At the same time, growing awareness of environmental considerations and the circular economy is driving demand for materials that combine sustainability with refined design.

Crafted in Japan, the Ultrafabrics Group’s premium performance materials combine refined aesthetics, durability and ease of maintenance. Through this partnership, the Ultrafabrics Group will offer the European premium furniture and interior design market a new sustainable and luxurious alternative to genuine leather.

By combining Gabriel’s extensive textile portfolio with the high-performance materials offered by the Ultrafabrics Group, the partnership will provide architects, designers and furniture manufacturers with a broader palette of colors, textures and materials. This will give customers greater flexibility in selecting the right material solution for each project and help create new demand in the European market.

Through this partnership, the Ultrafabrics Group will strengthen its business foundation in Europe and enhance corporate value over the medium to long term by providing sustainable material solutions.
