(Progress of Matters Subject to Disclosure) Notice Regarding Adding Large-Scale BESS Production Line at Power Base in Okayama

PowerX, Inc. (the “Company”) hereby announce that, at a meeting of its Executive Committee held today, our company decided to make changes as described below to the details previously disclosed in the " Notice Regarding Adding Large-Scale BESS Production Line at Power Base in Okayama " dated March 23, 2026.

1. Reasons for the Change

Regarding our head office factory, "Power Base Factory No. 1," the Company has added the Mega Power 4000 series—previously announced in the "Notice Concerning Announcement of Notice Regarding the Announcement of the “Mega Power 4000” Series, High-Capacity Battery Energy Storage Systems for Utility-Scale Projects " dated August 3, 2026—and other items to its product lineup. In connection with this, the Company has also revised our production capacity plan.

Furthermore, as disclosed in today's announcement titled " Notice Concerning Change in Use of Proceeds Raised Through Listing", the financing methods now include the amount raised through capital increase at the time of listing.

2. Details of the Change

	Before Change	After Change
Product	Large-scale BESS “Mega Power 2500” (10-foot container type)	Large-scale BESS including "Mega Power 2500" (10ft container type) and "Mega Power 4000" series (20ft container type)
Production Capacity	800 units per year (approx. 2 GWh)	800 units per year (approx. 2 GWh to 3.7 GWh)
Financing Method	Own funds and borrowings	Borrowings and funds raised through capital increase at listing

(Note 1) This manufacturing line will be added by utilizing existing facilities.
(Note 2) The above details are subject to change depending on the progress of design and planning.

3. Future Outlook

The impact of this change on the consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026 is minor. If any matters that require disclosure arise in the future, the Company will promptly disclose them.
