Notice Regarding Business Collaboration with HAGIYA NEW TECHNO CO., LTD.

We hereby announce that our company held a Board of Directors meeting on January 30, 2026, and made a resolution to conduct business collaboration with HAGIYA NEW TECHNO CO., LTD. in the EMS (Electronics Manufacturing Services) business.

1. Rationale for Business Collaboration

In recent years, while the trend of domestic production return is accelerating, customer companies are demanding higher manufacturing product quality than ever before. Furthermore, with the expansion of the CASE (Connected, Autonomous, Shared, Electric) sector, rapid progress in digitalization and digitalization of electronic components and assembly processes has been made. In Japan as well, there is increasing demand for services that provide advanced PCB mounting technology utilizing high-level substrate implementation techniques.

Through this collaboration, both companies will leverage our solid on-site responsiveness and proven mass production capability in automotive-related fields, and will organically utilize production capacity and resources. We aim to improve operational efficiency and create synergies through a strategic partnership that generates mutual benefits.

2. Content of Business Collaboration

(1) Content of Business Collaboration

Organic utilization of production capacity and resources in Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS)

<Synergy effects through business collaboration>

- Sharing of know-how cultivated by both companies in production technology and quality management centered on automotive applications, combined with global experience, coordination capabilities, and customer networks
- Improvement of operational efficiency through organic utilization of production capacity and resources
- BCP (Business Continuity Plan) response and risk diversification of supply chain in the Greater Kanto Region
- Reduction of material costs through joint component sourcing etc.
