Notice Concerning Possible Uncollectibility or Delay in Collection of Claims

The Musashino Bank, Ltd. (the "Bank") hereby announces that there is a possibility of uncollectibility or delay in collection of claims against the Bank's client as follows, as the client has applied for a rule-based out-of-court workout and presented a repayment plan proposal based on the premise of financial support, including waiver of claims.

1. Outline of the client

We will refrain from disclosing the name, location, description of business, and other details of the client because disclosing the details of the client may cause damage to the trust in the client and related parties due to rumors and other factors, which may hinder business continuity, such as by significantly impairing the business value.

2. Facts that have occurred with respect to the client

On July 10, 2026, the client applied for a rule-based out-of-court workout. At a meeting of creditors held on November 24, 2026, a repayment plan proposal was presented on the premise of financial support, including waiver of claims.

3. Type and amount of claims against the client (as of November 24, 2026)

Loans and bills discounted, etc. 11,537 million yen
(Percentage of consolidated net assets as of September 30, 2026 4.1%)

4. Impact of the fact on the Bank Group's financial results

With respect to the above claims, the necessary provisions have already been recorded, and there is no change to the earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending March 2027 announced on November 6, 2026.

5. Other

The rule-based out-of-court workout applied for by the client is intended to ensure the continuation of smooth business transactions while reconstructing the business, by limiting the relevant creditors, in principle, to financial institutions and similar entities and excluding the trade claims against the relevant debtor, and extremely high confidentiality is ensured.

Accordingly, the Bank, as a regional financial institution, has decided to refrain from disclosing information on the client in consideration of the impact on the business revitalization of the client.
