Announcement of Monthly Disclosure for May 2026

With respect to the business performance of the hotels owned by Japan Hotel REIT Investment Corporation (hereinafter called “JHR”) for May 2026, JHR informs you of the operating results of the 29 Hotels with Variable Rent, etc. (Note 1) including the monthly revenues (Note 2), occupancy rates, ADR, and RevPAR of the rooms department as below. For details on hotel operating performance by region, please refer to the JHR’s website (Note 3).

*The hotels subject to disclosure have been changed from this fiscal year. For details, please refer to (Note 1) below.

Hotel/Item		May	Fluctuation vs same month in 2025 (Note 10)	Percentage change vs same month in 2025	Cumulative total (Note 11)	Fluctuation of cumulative total vs 2025 (Note 12)	Percentage change of cumulative total vs 2025

	Other Dept.	268	28	11.9%	1,272	92	7.8%

<Special Items>

The May 2026 results for the 29 Hotels with Variable Rent, etc. owned by JHR:

In the rooms department, RevPAR increased by 7.9% year-on-year, despite the impact of travel restrictions from China to Japan, reflecting strong Golden Week leisure demand captured at higher room rates. The impact of heightened tensions in the Middle East remains limited at present, and RevPAR is expected to continue to show solid year-on-year growth from June onwards.

In the food and beverage department, both banquet and restaurant revenues performed well, resulting in overall department revenue growth of +8.1% year-on-year.

(Note 4) The figures and comments above have been prepared based on information the asset management company has obtained from the lessees, etc., and are only provided as a reference to general trends.

(Note 5) The figures for each month and information shown in the comments have not been audited, nor have they been subject to the independent verification of the asset management company. Therefore, no guarantee is made as to the accuracy or completeness of the numbers and information. Also, the revenues for each month and the total of each month may be different from the total revenues for the six-month or full-year periods stated in the annual securities report, etc., to be submitted later.

(Note 6) The occupancy rate refers to the number of rooms sold during the period divided by the number of rooms available during the same period.

(Note 7) ADR refers to the average guest room unit sales price (Average Daily Rate), which is calculated by dividing total room revenues (including service charges) for a given period by the total number of guest rooms sold for the same period.

(Note 8) RevPAR represents Revenue Per Available Room, which is calculated by dividing total room revenues (including service charges) for a given period by the total number of guest rooms available for revenues during the same period.

(Note 9) The occupancy rate is rounded off to the first decimal place. ADR and RevPAR are rounded off to the nearest whole number. Revenues are rounded off to the nearest million yen.

(Note 10) Fluctuation compared to the same month in 2025 means the fluctuation between the month subject to disclosure in this notice and the same month of 2025.

(Note 11) The cumulative total is the aggregate total from the beginning of the fiscal year (January) to the month subject to disclosure in this notice.

(Note 12) The percentage change of cumulative total compared to 2025 means the fluctuation between the cumulative total from the beginning of the fiscal year (January) to the month subject to disclosure in this notice and the cumulative total from the beginning of 2025 (January) to the same month in 2025.
